

Faculty of Law

A Message from the Dean

Welcome to the UNSW Law Faculty. The Law Faculty is committed to teaching and scholarly excellence within a setting of social responsibility. We are also dedicated to preserving the highest levels of student satisfaction in their legal and taxation education.

A Distinctive Faculty

The UNSW Law Faculty has a number of important distinguishing features. The Faculty believes that intellectual and social development is best honed when student views are recognised, appreciated and shared.

The Law School, from its inception, began a new tradition of teaching in Australia: interactive teaching and learning in small groups. This mode has since become a model in other law faculties as well. We believe that teaching in small groups of around 40 students stimulates the educational process. The result is a more robust and sharpened learning environment that helps students to develop superior powers of legal analysis.

Our Tax School, Atax, offers a unique distance education program in taxation that is consistent with small group teaching. Our specialised legal centres provide hands-on small group interaction in which students can learn about human rights, indigenous legal rights, constitutional and comparative law, and financial, consumer and youth law. Our library staff further complement small group teaching with their own strong backgrounds in research and service. Last, but not least, our law student representatives actively engage in Law Faculty governance on key committees and in day-to-day administration of Faculty affairs.

An Educational and Professional Environment

Legal education at UNSW reflects two parallel traditions. It combines the tradition of a university education with the professional education of lawyers and those engaged in the taxation profession. While these two traditions are sometimes viewed as disparate, the UNSW Law Faculty treats them as complementary, indeed as mutually reinforcing. We stress the virtue of exploring and applying ideas both as a matter of intellectual inquiry and in applying legal principles to diverse social contexts.

We also hold that a legal education is intended to expose students to social responsibility in its diverse manifestations. We recognise such social responsibility variously, such as by requiring students to participate in the work of the Kingsford Legal Centre (the Faculty's community legal centre).

We believe, too, that social and legal institutions are mirrored in diversity, not in the pre-emptive interests of any one social group to the exclusion of all others. The UNSW Law Faculty provides education in human rights and consumer law. It also does so in corporate and commercial law. Legal education is a tapestry of difference, not of monolithic uniformity.

We invite you to join us at the UNSW Law Faculty. We challenge you to question tried and tested ideas. We encourage you to study through discourse and to learn by example. Legal education at UNSW is concerned, not only with higher values, but also with applying them in an ethical, coherent and ultimately, sustainable manner.

Information and Assistance

Who Can Help?

If you require advice about enrolment, degree requirements, progression within programs or information about course content and requirements, contact the School of Law Student Administration Office.

Please refer to the School of Law homepage for timetables and general information: www.law.unsw.edu.au

Advanced Standing

The policy of the School of Law is to grant credit for courses which have been successfully completed in another School of Law where those courses, in the opinion of the School, are equivalent in content and depth to comparable courses at UNSW. Applicants who have completed a full law degree in another country are normally granted credit equivalent to one third of the UNSW degree. All matters regarding credit are at the discretion of the School.

Computing Information

The School of Law manages a multimedia computer laboratory equipped with 26 PCs for instructional purposes. In addition, law students have access to two multimedia computer workspaces which contain 15

networked computers and smart-card controlled laser printers. Research students have access to two dedicated computer workspaces equipped with 21 multimedia computers and printing facilities. The School maintains a World Wide Web server, a CD-ROM server and a document scanning and Character Recognition facility. All students have access to a range of research tools from the computer desktops including email, online and CD-ROM based national and international legal databases, library catalogues and World Wide Web access. For more information, please refer to the booklet 'IT Resources for Students' or visit the website at www.law.unsw.edu.au

Course Descriptions

Descriptions of courses offered in 2006 can be found in alphabetical order by the course code at the back of this Handbook or in the Online Handbook at www.handbook.unsw.edu.au

Enrolment Procedures

Continuing Students

Continuing students should follow the procedures publicised at the end of the year.

New Students

New students are informed of enrolment procedures at the time of offer.

Full-time Status

The majority of Law programs are full-time and require attendance at classes four days per week. Students are reminded that a full-time program is intended for students who devote the principal part of their available time to their program. Any additional commitment, in the form of paid work, training for sport at a significant level of achievement or voluntary work in community organisations, is bound to have an effect on a student's work. Past experience shows that additional commitments beyond 10–15 hours per week almost invariably have an adverse effect on student performance and in some cases have led directly to failure. Students are strongly advised that, if an outside commitment of this order is likely to be maintained consistently over a session, the commitment should be discussed in advance with the Associate Dean (Undergraduate). It should be noted, however, that it is the individual teachers who determine whether outside commitments should constitute grounds for consideration in meeting the requirements of particular courses.

Part-time Status

Students undertaking the part-time program for Bachelor of Laws are expected to attend classes on two afternoons per week during the academic year, usually between 2pm and 8pm on Day 1 and 2pm and 6pm on Day 2.

General Education Requirements

Law students enrolled in the Bachelor of Jurisprudence Bachelor of Laws program must complete General Education requirements. All other law students are deemed to have satisfied the General Education requirement. Detailed information about General Education courses is available in the General Education section of this Handbook.

Guidelines for Maximum Workload

The sequence of study for each program is set out under 'Program Rules and Information' in this section of the Handbook. Any student wishing to vary their program (law or non-law) by enrolling in a reduced program or in courses which do not conform to the normal sequence, must seek approval from the Associate Dean (Undergraduate).

Undergraduate students wishing to overload must submit an 'Overload Request' form at the Student Administration Enquiry Counter. Permission can only be given on the basis of a written application in advance of the relevant session.

Rules for Progression

The School of Law uses a range of assessment methods to assess students. These vary from course to course and include formal examinations, take-home examinations, research projects, class participation, essays and moots (mock trials).

Progression in programs is generally dependent on the successful completion of prerequisites and corequisites for courses as listed in the schedules of courses for each program. Students are required to have completed 84 units of credit of core Law courses before enrolling in any elective course.

Where the academic record of students is not of a satisfactory standard, the Associate Dean (Undergraduate) may recommend a restricted program. This applies to all undergraduate programs offered by the Faculty.

Cross-Institutional Studies and Exchange Programs

Students enrolled at UNSW may be permitted to undertake some studies at overseas (exchange) or interstate institutions (cross-institutional studies) provided that they are equivalent in content and depth to comparable courses at UNSW.

Courses which have been successfully completed at another law school (either in Australia or overseas) may be credited to the student's degree up to a maximum of 48 UOC.

The School participates in several overseas exchange programs, and encourages students to take advantage of these. Information regarding these programs can be obtained from the administrative staff.

Students should discuss their plans for cross-institutional studies with the appropriate student advisor in order to determine both their eligibility to undertake such studies and the 'credibility' of the courses under consideration.

Financial Assistance to Students

Full-time students within the School of Law in need of temporary financial assistance, at any time during their studies, should be aware of the existence of certain grants and loans sponsored by some Sydney law firms. Students who feel they may need assistance of this type are invited to discuss their requirements on a strictly confidential basis with the Dean.

Professional Associates

In addition to full-time teaching staff in the School of Law, each year there are a small number of distinguished members of the legal profession in NSW who work in close association with full-time teachers. They participate in all aspects of the presentation of programs covered by their professional specialisation.

Student Representatives

Each year in October up to nine students are elected to membership of the Faculty for the following year. All students enrolled in the Faculty are eligible to stand for election and to vote. Student Members attend School meetings and sit on various Faculty and School Committees.

The Law Society

The Law Society is the students' body which you automatically join on enrolling as a law student. The administration of the Society consists of the Executive and various committees. Members of the Executive and the committees are your representatives within the School of Law. As such they are there to help with problems that may arise such as assessment. They are also there to ensure that an effective student voice is presented to the School.

The Law Society organises social events, careers events, student publications, competitions and various other activities. The social events include first year law camp, Law Ball, harbour cruise, sports events, intervarsity trivia quiz and regular drinks nights and barbecues. The Law Society publishes a magazine with contributions from students, called Poetic Justice; a weekly newsletter within the faculty known as Innominate; the Law Annual; the Alternative Law Handbook and careers guides. The Law Society also runs the internal moot, witness examination, client counselling and negotiation competitions. A speakers' forum with guest speakers from the judiciary, legal practitioners and public figures is held every couple of weeks. The Law Society and the Law Faculty also hold an annual Valedictory Dinner. The Society has officers representing the concerns of international and graduate law students and is involved in the Australasian Law Students' Association. All students are welcome to be involved.

Admission to Combined Programs

Students who satisfy the entry requirements may enter the combined programs directly in Year 1. Alternatively, students may apply to transfer into a combined law degree after the completion of one year of study (48 units of credit). Admission is based on a combination of UAI score and tertiary results.

Program Transfers: Students enrolled in combined law programs who discover they have made a wrong choice of program should consult a student advisor in the School of Law as soon as possible. It is sometimes possible to effect changes without seriously affecting progress in the new program; the earlier the change can be made, the easier the transition.

BJuris LLB

Typical Duration

5 years

Minimum UOC for Award

240 units of credit

Typical UOC per Session

24 units of credit

Program Description

This program combines the professional Bachelor of Law (LLB) program with the Bachelor of Jurisprudence (BJuris).

The BJuris degree is available either as part of the combined Jurisprudence/Law program or an "exit degree" for students who decide after admission not to proceed with an LLB degree. It is not available as a separate pass degree for admission purposes. Students wishing to graduate with a BJuris must satisfy the requirements as listed in Rule 10 of the Academic Rules (see refer to the entry for 4790 Bachelor of Laws).

The Bachelor of Jurisprudence, unlike the LLB degree, is not designed to provide a qualification for the professional practice of law. It provides a basic knowledge of law, an opportunity to study selected legal courses of special interest, and significant study in other faculties. Various combinations of non-law courses are possible and the program may be moulded to meet various vocational ends, eg for industrial officers or advocates, public servants, business executives or law librarians.

Teaching methods in Law courses are the same as in the LLB program.

Duration/Awards

The program is a five year full-time combined program leading to the award of the two degrees of Bachelor of Jurisprudence and Bachelor of Laws (BJuris LLB).

Assumed Knowledge

Students must satisfy any assumed knowledge requirements (but not general Faculty assumed knowledge requirements) for courses studied in other faculties.

Non-Law Courses

The non-law courses shall include, unless otherwise approved, a major sequence of 42 units of credit approved by the faculty offering the major sequence. There is an additional requirement of 12 units of credit of non-law courses.

Students are required to obtain the approval of the Faculty of Law for their proposed program of non-law courses and the order in which they are to be studied. In approving such courses, the Faculty shall have regard to the contribution the study of such courses may reasonably be expected to make to the development of his or her capacity as a lawyer and understanding of the law.

BJuris

Candidates may be awarded the degree of Bachelor of Jurisprudence subject to satisfying the requirements as listed in Rule 10 of the Academic Rules, including satisfaction of General Education requirements for the single pass degree (12 units of credit).

Approved Sequence of Study:

Students must study non-law courses in a sequence approved by the non-law faculty and the Faculty of Law, and law courses in a sequence approved by the Faculty of Law. Approved sequences for each combined program are given below; other sequences may be approved under special circumstances.

Program Objectives and Learning Outcomes

On completion of this combined degree program, students should have attained a basic knowledge of the theory and practice of law.

BA(Media) LLB

Typical Duration

5 years

Minimum UOC for Award

240 units of credit

Typical UOC per Session

24 units of credit

Program Description

This program combines the professional Bachelor of Laws with the Bachelor of Arts (Media and Communications).

The Bachelor of Arts (Media and Communications) emphasises new computer-based multimedia skills and focuses on Australian media industries in relation to globalisation. The degree is vocationally relevant in its orientation and all students are given significant practical experience in new computer-based multimedia communications technologies. It aims to develop in students a sophisticated understanding of the history, scope and socio-cultural impact of new media technologies, and of the debates that have accompanied their development and use. Second, it offers extensive experience in the production of new media content appropriate for employment in the contemporary media.

This degree combination would be of interest to students interested in becoming media lawyers, or in the fields of broadcast media (video-based, multi-media production and post production; research, administration and policy analysis for private corporations, telecommunications companies and government departments).

Program Objectives and Learning Outcomes

In addition to studying eight courses in the Media and Communications core program, students complete six courses from List A of the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, to permit them to study a second field in depth. Years 1 and 2 cover multimedia writing and production and contextual media studies. Year 3 consolidates the program's emphasis on production and analytical skills. This grounding enables students to interpret, create and apply the products of the new media not only in the context of the mass information and entertainment industries, but also in a variety of other public and private sector areas such as education, on-the-job training and specialised information services.

4705 Bachelor of Architecture Bachelor of Laws

BArch LLB

Typical Duration

7 years

Minimum UOC for Award

336 units of credit

Typical UOC per Session

24 units of credit

Program Description

This program provides an opportunity to obtain two professional degrees. It allows students to add the professionally recognised Law program to the professionally accredited Architecture program offered by the Faculty of the Built Environment.

In terms of career prospects, employers could include law firms specialising in construction law, related government departments and regulatory bodies and architectural practices.

Duration/Award

The program is a seven year full-time combined program leading to the award of the two degrees of Bachelor of Architecture and Bachelor of Laws (BArch LLB). Students may complete the program in 6.5 years or 13 sessions of study if they carry out Work Experience over the summer breaks. This would mean that the enrolment for one session would be 48 units of credit which includes the 24 units of credit for work experience.

Because the Architecture program contains a percentage of open electives which can be replaced by law courses, the combined program requires only three additional sessions of study to gain both qualifications. In general, this study is taken concurrently with the BArch program and both can be completed in thirteen sessions. It is considered to have a significant workload throughout these thirteen sessions.

Completion Requirements

From Year 2 both degrees must be studied concurrently with the expectation they students complete the full seven year program prior to graduating with the two degrees. It is not permissible for students enrolled in the combined Law degree program to graduate from the LLB degree until they have completed requirements for the non-Law degree.

Entry Requirements

The combined program is open to students who satisfy both the Architecture and Law entry conditions. Students may enter directly in Year 1 or may apply to transfer from the Architecture Program after the completion of one year if they have achieved a distinction or higher average. All applications for transfer must be registered with the University Admissions Centre. Transfer after the second year may result in the student taking more than the minimum time to complete the combined degree.

Organisation

The BArch LLB program is administered by the Faculty of Law. The Faculty requires the student to obtain approval of the Faculty of Built Environment, Architecture Program for the Architecture courses. The final program and timetable must be approved by the Head of the Architecture Program in the Faculty of the Built Environment.

Program Objectives and Learning Outcomes

At the completion of this program, students will have obtained a sound knowledge base in the fields of both Architecture and Law.

Program Structure

Approved Sequence of Study:

Students must complete Year 1 (48 units of credit) of the Architecture program before attempting any courses from the Law program. In subsequent years students must study architecture courses in a sequence approved by the Faculty of the Built Environment and law courses in a sequence approved by the School of Law. An approved sequence is detailed below. Other sequences may be approved under special circumstances.

Program Description

This program provides an opportunity to obtain two professional degrees. It allows students to add the professionally recognised Law program to the professionally accredited Planning program offered by the Faculty of the Built Environment.

Duration/Award

The program is a seven year full-time combined program leading to the award of the two degrees of Bachelor of Planning and Bachelor of Laws (BPlan LLB).

Because the Planning program contains a percentage of open electives which can be replaced by Law courses, the combined program requires only four additional sessions of study to gain both qualifications. In general, this study is taken concurrently with the BPlan program and both can be completed in a minimum of seven years, consisting of twelve academic sessions (six years), plus two sessions of compulsory Work Experience. This compares with the five-year BPlan program, which consists of eight academic sessions and two sessions (12 months) of compulsory Work Experience.

Although Work Experience is normally undertaken after the completion of five academic sessions, BPlan LLB students may elect to undertake the one year (two sessions) of compulsory Work Experience required for the award of the single BPlan degree after the completion of their BPlan and LLB coursework.

In addition, students may undertake the compulsory Work Experience in flexible ways (subject to the approval of the Planning and Urban Development Program), thereby reducing the overall length of the BPlan LLB Program.

Completion Requirements

From Year 2, both degrees must be studied concurrently with the expectation they students complete the full seven year program prior to graduating with the two degrees. It is not permissible for students enrolled in the combined Law degree program to graduate from the LLB degree until they have completed requirements for the non-Law degree.

Entry Requirements

The combined program is open to students who satisfy both the Planning and Law entry conditions. Students may enter directly in Year 1 or may apply to transfer from the Planning program after the completion of one year. Entry on this basis is competitive and is based on a combination of UAI and tertiary results. Transfer after the second year may result in the student taking more than the minimum time to complete the combined degree.

Organisation

The BPlan LLB course is administered by the Faculty of Law. The Faculty requires the student to obtain approval of the Planning and Urban Development Program in the School of the Built Environment for the Planning components of their program. The final program and timetable must be approved by the Head of the Planning and Urban Development Program.

Approved Sequence of Study

Students must complete Year 1 (48 units of credit) of the Planning program before attempting any courses from the Law program. In subsequent years students must study Planning courses in the sequence approved by the Faculty of the Built Environment and Law courses in a sequence approved by the School of Law. The approved sequence of study is detailed below.

General Education Requirements

Students enrolled in combined law degrees are not required to complete General Education courses. However, if a student wishes to graduate with their BCom degree after 3 years, they are required to complete 12 UOC of General Education from faculties other than Law and Commerce as well as the required Law and Commerce courses for years 1-3.

Honours

The BCom degree is available with Honours. This normally requires an extra year of study between Years 3 and 4. Students interested in undertaking Honours should consult with the relevant School Office at the end of Year 1.

Notwithstanding the above regulations, students undertaking the combined Bachelor of Commerce at Honours level may be awarded the degree of Bachelor of Commerce at Honours level once they have completed the Honours year and the requirements of the first three years of the combined Bachelor of Commerce at Honours Level.

Candidates for Honours in the Commerce degree course must complete one year additional to the minimum of five years required for the Commerce/Law program at Pass level.

The requirements relating to Honours in the BCom degree courses are noted at the end of the program for each specialisation. Students ordinarily will interpolate an Honours year between Years 3 and 4 of the combined course.

Academic Rules

For Academic Rules relating to the Bachelor of Laws component of this combined degree program, please refer to entry for program 4790 Bachelor of Laws.

Rules Relating To the Bachelor of Commerce/Bachelor of Laws Program and the Bachelor of Economics/Bachelor of Law Program

The rules as set out in other sections of this Handbook, shall apply wherever relevant to candidates for the program of Bachelor of Commerce Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Economics Bachelor of Laws.

BCom and BEc: Candidates for the combined Commerce/Law or Economics/Law degree program may be awarded the degree of BCom or BEc either when they have successfully completed the entire combined program or, for students enrolling from 1996, when they have completed the requirements for the award of the first three years of the combined Bachelor of Commerce or Bachelor of Economics/Bachelor of Laws program – as set out in the program outline – and subject to satisfaction of General Education requirements for the single pass degree.

Concessions apply in deciding when students enrolled prior to 1995 who have not completed the requirements of the combined degree have nevertheless completed the requirements of the BCom or BEc. Please consult earlier faculty handbooks for the appropriate 'Rules relating to the award of the degree of Bachelor of Commerce or Bachelor of Economics prior to the completion of the Combined Degree'.

Honours: Notwithstanding the above regulations, students undertaking the combined Bachelor of Commerce or Bachelor of Economics at Honours level/Bachelor of Laws program may be awarded the degree of Bachelor of Commerce or Bachelor of Economics at Honours level once they have completed the Honours year and the requirements of the first three years of the combined Bachelor of Commerce or Bachelor of Economics at Honours Level/Bachelor of Laws program.

Candidates for Honours in the Commerce or Economics degree course must complete one year additional to the minimum of five years required for the Commerce/Law program at Pass level.

The requirements relating to Honours in the BCom and BEc degree courses are noted at the end of the program for each specialisation. Students ordinarily will interpolate an Honours year between Years 3 and 4 of the combined course.

Program Description

The Bachelor of Laws degree may be combined with a Bachelor of Economics specialising in Economics, Econometrics or Financial Economics.

Program Objectives and Learning Outcomes

This program provides an opportunity to obtain two degrees of professional importance to business, administration and commercial law practice. At the completion of this program students will have obtained a sound knowledge base in the disciplines of both Economics and Law.

Program Structure

Duration/Award:

The program is a five year full-time combined program leading to the award of the two degrees of Bachelor of Economics and Bachelor of Laws (BEc LLB).

Distinction:

The BEc degree may be awarded with Distinction where a student has achieved a weighted average mark (WAM) of at least 75% in the UNSW courses completed as part of that degree.

Transferring Majors (Plans):

Students must nominate a major (plan code) at enrolment. Subsequent transfers to another major may be possible subject to the approval of both Faculties.

Graduation:

Candidates enrolled in the combined degree program BEc/LLB may be awarded the degree of BEc after the completion of specified requirements. Full details are given in the 'Rules Relating to the Award of Degrees'.

Commerce & Economics courses:

Apart from service courses for other faculties, and unless specified as from which discipline they must be chosen, Commerce and Economics options may be chosen from any taught by the Faculty of Commerce and Economics except for those offered by the School of Business Law and Taxation (LEGT). No course can be counted both as an option and as a prescribed course.

Approved Sequence of Study:

Students must study commerce and economics courses in a sequence approved by the School of Economics and law courses in a sequence approved by the School of Law. Specifically, all or the majority of law core courses must be completed prior to enrolling in law electives. Approved sequences for each combined program are given below; other sequences may be approved under special circumstances.

Total Unit Requirements

Law compulsory courses - 92UOC

Law elective courses - 64UOC

Approved economic courses - 84UOC including the first year compulsory core courses

The single major requirement for the BEc is 60 UOC. Students enrolling in the BEc/LLB complete 60 UOC towards a major and 24 UOC of other approved Commerce & Economics courses including the compulsory first year core courses.

PLANS (Majors)

The following specialisations (majors) are available within the Bachelor of Laws Bachelor of Economics degree: Economics Econometrics Financial Economics.

Program Description

This program will provide students with professional qualifications in areas of great importance to the community. The program will prove attractive to students who have in mind a career involving constructive developments. Most large construction projects raise a formidable range of legal issues, and there appears to be a need for highly qualified personnel who are able to understand both the engineering and the legal dimensions of such projects, both in Australia and overseas.

Duration/Award

The program is a six year full-time combined program leading to the award of the two degrees of Bachelor of Engineering and Bachelor of Laws (BE LLB). There will be a testamur for each degree in the combined program with both degrees being conferred at the completion of the full six-year program.

Assumed Knowledge

A prescribed standard in mathematics for entry to the Faculty of Engineering and to individual courses in that faculty. Further details are available in the UAC Guide.

Bachelor of Engineering

Students who decide not to continue in the LLB may complete the BE but must contact the Head of School of Civil and Environmental Engineering for any credit towards advanced standing in the BE of completed law courses.

Program Objectives and Learning Outcomes

At the completion of this program, students will have obtained a sound knowledge base in the fields of both Civil Engineering and Law.

Faculty of Science and Faculty of Law4770 Bachelor of Science Bachelor of Laws*BSc LLB*Typical Duration

5 years

Minimum UOC for Award

240 units of credit

Typical UOC per Session

24 units of credit

Program Description

This program combines the professional LLB program with the large number of majors offered within the Faculty of Science.

The Science programs provide opportunities for students to prepare themselves for careers in research, technology, science, mathematics and education, or areas of management or public policy which involve the use of science or mathematics.

Major Sequence

(i) Students may select any major from those offered by the Faculty of Science, or a major in Computer Science or Information Systems which are administered by the School of Computer Science and Engineering and the Faculty of Commerce and Economics. (See separate entry.)

(ii) Students should discuss their choice of major with the Science Student Centre prior to enrolment.

(iii) For the majority of majors students are required to complete only 2 law courses in Year 1. For the Psychology major students are required to complete 5. (See separate entry.)

Duration/Award

The program is a five year full-time combined program leading to the award of the two degrees of Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Laws (BSc LLB).

Assumed Knowledge

Students must satisfy the normal assumed knowledge requirements for entry to the Faculty of Science and to individual courses in that Faculty.

BSc

The degree of Bachelor of Science is not awarded until the completion of the full five year program, but students unable to complete the full program may apply for advanced standing in the Bachelor of Science degree.

Science Courses

Students must complete a minimum of 84 units of credit, including the requirements of one of the majors outlined in Table A in the Science section of the Handbook or a major in Computer Science. In all cases students must include 24 to 36 units of credit of Level 1 courses.

Law or Science Electives

In addition to the prescribed units of credit of law courses and science courses there is the option to complete 8 units of credit of either law or science electives. Students can satisfy this requirement by completing either a law elective (8 units of credit) or an elective approved by the Faculty of Science (6 units of credit) plus a Law Research Project (2 units of credit).

Approved Sequence of Study:

Students must study Science courses in a sequence approved by the Faculty of Science and Law courses in a sequence approved by the Faculty of Law. A typical structure of a combined Science/Law program is set out below. Subject to timetable restrictions, the full range of Science majors are normally available to Law students. The sequence for Computer Science and Psychology majors is detailed separately.

Program Objectives and Learning Outcomes

At the completion of this program, students will have obtained a sound knowledge base in the disciplines of both Science and Law.

Academic Support

A range of different academic support services is provided by Atax through the Academic Support Coordinator. These include support packages on general study skills and basic grammar and writing skills.

Atax recognises students come to the Bachelor of Taxation program with a broad range of backgrounds. We are responsive to the diverse needs of students. Atax provides both formal and informal academic support options.

Two audio conferences are conducted each semester. These are intended for new students, although continuing students are also welcome to participate. These Audio Conferences provide an opportunity for students to discuss general study skills and examination preparation issues in a relatively informal environment. Students are also encouraged to refer to the UNSW Learning Centre (www.lc.unsw.edu.au) and Atax Student Guide.

The Academic Support Coordinator is regularly available for informal consultation and can direct students to appropriate resources and services. Additional support services are provided through the UNSW Learning

Centre and other units. The Atax Academic Support Coordinator is the primary contact person for students seeking access to such services. The Student Services Office is able to provide contact details.

Enrolment Procedures

Enrolment procedures for Atax programs vary slightly from conventional mode programs. Closing dates are usually much earlier and students should refer to information distributed by the Atax Student Services and Atax website prior to the commencement of each semester.

Sources of Information

It is important that students familiarise themselves with various documents and sources of information available.

These include:

The website also includes details of conferences and special events, links to individual lecturers' web pages, relevant research links and Atax Library Online.

Atax Student Guide

The Atax Student Guide provides ready access to the basics of Atax administration and contains other study resource materials. This guide provides an essential reference point for the Atax student, with contact lists, enrolment information, calendar of events, assessment procedures, and a Library Guide.

Orientation

Orientation sessions for new students are usually held in most Australian cities prior to the commencement of each semester. Study Materials will be dispatched to students prior to Orientation. Orientation serves both academic and administrative purposes, as well as giving students the opportunity to meet lecturers and fellow students.

It is expected that all new students will attend their local Orientation.

Flexible Distance Delivery

Students can study from anywhere in Australia or overseas without attending campus lectures. All Atax students are supported with comprehensive, high-quality written Study Materials. Atax has Learning Centres in 22 locations across Australia and its flexible distance education framework incorporates a variety of modes of teaching to effectively deliver the Atax programs.

Students may find the learning environment differs significantly from traditional campus-based study. Students should refer to the Atax Student Guide (provided with Study Materials) or visit www.atax.unsw.edu.au for full information regarding the facilities available:

Program Rules and Information

4620 Bachelor of Taxation

BTax

Typical Duration

3 years full-time

Minimum UOC for Award

144 units of credit

Typical UOC per Session

24 units of credit

Program Description

The Bachelor of Taxation Degree commenced in 1991 and was the first university undergraduate tax degree offered in Australia.

The Bachelor of Taxation can be studied over three years full-time with four courses (or equivalent units of credit) per semester, or six years part-time with two courses (or equivalent) per semester. It is based on the equivalent of 24 courses, of 6 units of credit per course, including 16 core and 8 electives. Some UNSW General Education courses carry only half the credits (3 units of credit) and workload of mainstream courses. Enrolment in such courses could increase the total number of courses to 26.

Students who wish to meet professional accounting entry requirements must study the accounting courses indicated by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia (ICAA) and CPA Australia. (See 'Particular Requirements for Accounting Professional Entry')

Admission Requirements

Entry to the program is competitive. In assessing applications, the Admissions Committee takes into account the following factors:

- educational achievement
- work experience
- evidence of the ability to handle complex technical issues
- evidence of commitment and motivation
- referees' reports, if provided

The normal minimum qualification for admission to the program is NSW matriculation (HSC) or equivalent Year 12 qualifications or completion and award of Certificate IV or Associate Diploma or Advanced Diploma in Accounting or equivalent from a TAFE. Consideration will be given to mature age students with extensive technical experience. Students who do not meet Year 12 or TAFE entry requirements may gain entry after completing a University Preparation Program (UPP).

Applications who are not sponsored in their study by the Tax Office must apply via UAC.

Occupational Destination of Graduates

Atax graduates are leading fulfilling careers in all parts of private and public practice. They are employed by accounting and legal majors, in the tax groups of large and medium sized corporations, in smaller accounting and law firms and in the Federal Treasury, Tax Office, State Government Treasury Departments and Revenue Offices.

The accounting stream of the Bachelor of Taxation Degree has been considered as satisfying the prescribed qualifications criterion of INCOME TAX REGULATION 156 for registration with the Tax Agents' Board.

Professional Accreditation

The Bachelor of Taxation program has been granted accreditation by CPA Australia and the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia (ICAA). This means the Bachelor of Taxation satisfies the educational requirements for associate level of membership, provided the student has studied elective courses in the accounting stream of the Bachelor of Taxation. These course choices and study sequences are explained below in the section 'Requirements for Accounting Professional Entry'. The Bachelor of Taxation will also count towards membership of other bodies such as the NIA, ATMA and the TIA – even if the full accounting stream is not followed.

Student Workload

Part-time students will normally complete two courses per semester. Full-time students will normally complete four courses per semester. 'Full-time' students are defined as having a load of 0.75 or more (0.375 per semester). Contact will vary from course to course. As a rough guide, students can expect to spend at least 12 hours per week studying each course.

It is possible to take a lighter workload, studying one course per semester. In special circumstances with approval from the program convener, a heavier load could be taken. That would depend to some extent on the student's prior academic record.

Program Objectives and Learning Outcomes

The objectives of the Bachelor of Taxation are to provide students with:

- a broad-based education in all areas relevant to taxation (including law, accounting, economics and computing) as well as a vocationally specific education;
- knowledge of the basic structure of the Australian tax system, of the essential concepts that underpin taxation, and of the Income Tax Assessment Act and related Acts;
- knowledge of accounting and reporting information, processes and systems, and the integration of such knowledge with the tax system;
- knowledge of legal concepts and principles involved in areas such as contract law, commercial law, administrative law, litigation, company law, banking and finance, property, trusts and equity, and the integration of such knowledge with the tax system;
- skills of statutory interpretation and case analysis;
- skills in organising and solving complex problems by the collection, analysis and application of relevant laws, rules, standards or other information;
- skills of oral and written communication, of negotiation and of advocacy;
- the ability to apply the processes of critical reasoning in evaluating the broad institutional and economic outcomes of tax decisions, including an application of major economic, organisational and information processing concepts;
- the ability to judge appropriate standards of ethical behaviour in their dealings with clients, customers and tax administrators in the tax profession; and
- an awareness of the role of liberal studies as part of a general university education through, in part, the critical analysis of their own professional culture and by exposure in all courses to the broad traditions of critical enquiry.

Program Structure

Particular Requirements for Accounting Professional Entry

Students wanting to gain accounting admission must study the following:

ATAX0053 Accounting for Complex Structures and Instruments (6 UOC)

Also one of the following three other special category courses must be chosen:

ATAX0020 Introduction to Australian International Taxation (6 UOC)

ATAX0022 GST: Design and Structure (6 UOC)

ATAX0023 Principles of GST Law (6 UOC)

Finally, three of the four general electives must be accounting courses. The following three elective courses must be chosen:

ATAX0057 Business Finance (6 UOC)

ATAX0059 Management Accounting (6 UOC)

ATAX0060 Auditing and Assurance Services (6 UOC)

Hence in practice the only decision to be made for students seeking professional accounting entry is between ATAX0020, ATAX0022 and ATAX0023, which are general electives and in the General Education area.

However, Atax also recommends that ATAX0058 be studied as the extra general elective before attempting ATAX0057. As requirements change from time to time, students should check any updates or changes to requirements later in their degree program.

General Education Requirements

Students enrolled in this program must also satisfy the University's General Education requirements.

Twelve units of credit of General Education must be successfully completed. General Education requirements may, with the prior approval of the BTax Convenor, be fulfilled by completion of courses offered in other faculties within UNSW or at other universities. Some of these courses have lower credit value and workload than Atax courses.

The Assessment Committee of the Board of Studies in Taxation may award the Bachelor of Taxation degree with Distinction when a student satisfies the condition of a 75% weighted average mark (WAM) attained over the student's degree.

Bachelor of Taxation Degree with Merit

For students who entered the Bachelor of Taxation program prior to 2003, the Assessment Committee of the Board of Studies in Taxation may award the Bachelor of Taxation Degree with Merit when a student satisfies the following conditions:

- a 70% average is attained over the student's best prescribed merit award number of courses presented for the degree (see table below); and
- the student does not have more than two failures throughout the program.

Provided that where, in the opinion of the Examiners at the Assessment Committee, 'exceptional circumstances' exist the Assessment Committee may award the degree with Merit even though a student has not attained a 70% average and/or has three failures throughout the program.

Students enrolled in BTax prior to 2003 and therefore eligible for award of either the BTax with Merit or the BTax with Distinction have the option of taking out one or the other award.

Non-Award (Single Course), Cross-Institutional and Cross-Group (Faculty) Enrolments

Introduction and Overview

Non-Award enrolments are enrolments in courses or a sequence of courses, which do not lead to, nor (normally) count towards, a formal award of UNSW.

Non-Award study with Atax may count towards Continuing Professional Education (CPE), Continuing Professional Development (CPD) and Continuing Legal Education (CLE) requirements for Chartered Accountants, Certified Practising Accountants and lawyers respectively.

There are several categories of Non-Award enrolment:

1. Voluntary course enrolment – where the student is taking the course either out of interest or to develop professional competence in an area of specialisation.
2. Cross-Institutional enrolment – where the student enrolls in a UNSW course for credit towards an award at another tertiary institution, at which the student is concurrently enrolled.
3. Cross-Group enrolment – where a student from another group (faculty) of UNSW applies to study an Atax course. Written confirmation is required from the other group stating that the course will be credited towards the award.
4. Where an Atax student wishes to enrol in a course at another institution for credit towards their UNSW award, any such courses must be of similar content and level to the corresponding Atax course and specific reasons for the request are required. Atax will normally approve this type of enrolment in special circumstances only. Students are required to complete the normal enrolment procedure at UNSW in order to have the course credited towards their degree.

Cross-Institutional Enrolment Procedures

Procedures for an Atax student entering into a cross-institutional scheme are as follows:

1. Forward full details of the course, including unit of credit value, assessment and content, to the Atax Student Services Office. Outline why you consider the circumstances to be special and indicate the Atax course for which it would be substituted.
2. Your application will then be considered and you will receive written advice regarding its success or otherwise.
3. Make an application to the host institution, presenting approval from Atax (check with the host institution for appropriate procedures).
4. Notify Atax of acceptance by the host institution.
5. Forward a certified copy of the official result (mark and grade) from the course studied at the host institution to Atax once the course assessment has been finalised.

Cross-Group Enrolment Procedures

Students intending to:

- add/vary Atax courses to/in a program of study from another Group or School within UNSW; or
- add/vary courses from another Group or School within UNSW, to an Atax program;

are strongly advised to contact the Atax Student Services Office so transition arrangements can be effected smoothly. You must ascertain the availability of particular courses and the semesters in which they will be offered. You should arrange for your program authority to provide written approval that the Cross-Group course will be credited to your award program. Also arrangements for delivery/collection of study materials and associated support need to be communicated.

Students based in the Law School in UNSW are regarded as falling within these arrangements.
