General Studies Program

Who to Contact

If you require advice about enrolment, degree requirements, choice of electives or any other General Studies matters contact:

Mrs Margaret Leonard, Administrative Officer
Department of General Studies
Room G54, Morven Brown Building
Telephone 662 3478.

Important: As changes may be made to information provided in this handbook, students should frequently consult the noticeboards of the Department of General Studies and the official noticeboards of the University.

Nature of the Program

The general education component of a professional degree course is designed to give students some knowledge of their social and political environment, the interaction between science and society, and the contribution of philosophy and the creative arts to society. The electives are designed for students from a wide variety of faculties and assume no prior knowledge of the subject concerned.

Electives have been placed in three main categories:

1. Social and Political Studies.
2. Science, Technology and Civilization.
3. Philosophy and the Creative Arts.

Although the choice of electives in 1984 is completely free, the Department recommends that students choose at least one elective from each of the three categories to ensure that the aims of a program of general education are achieved.

Responsibility for the General Studies program rests with the Board of Studies in General Education which was established by Council in 1963.

Structure of Electives

The Department of General Studies restructured its electives in 1983.

- Half electives are designated by a six-digit subject number. These electives were expanded from 21 to 28 hours duration and are given over one session.
- Full electives are designated by a five-digit subject number. These electives were expanded from 42 to 56 hours duration and may be given over two sessions or compressed into one session.

Students may complete their General Studies requirements with any combination of half electives and full electives.

Undergraduate Study

General Studies Requirements

The normal General Studies requirement is 168 hours for students who are taking full-time courses of at least four years duration and 126 hours for three-year full-time courses. The corresponding hours for part-time courses are 168 hours for courses of over 6 years and 126 hours for courses of 6 years and under. Due to the change in the structure of electives (expansion of half electives from 21 to 28 hours and electives from 42 to 56 hours), students are required to take fewer of the new electives.

Students who started their General Studies requirement under the old system are required to take no more than the original requirement.

Substitution of Arts Subjects for General Studies Electives

1. Courses in all faculties other than Commerce

Students may upon the recommendation of the Head of the School offering the subject and with the approval of the Head of the Department of General Studies or their nominees substitute one or more Arts subjects for General Studies electives. For this purpose Arts subjects of six credit points may be substituted for 56 hours of General Studies and Arts subjects of twelve credit points may be substituted for 112 hours of General Studies. Further details are available from the Department of General Studies Office.

2. Courses in the Faculty of Commerce

Commerce students may substitute Arts subjects in accordance with the following rules:

(1) Candidates shall include among their options subjects which are any electives other than economics offered by the Department of General Studies, or any subjects other than economics that are qualifying subjects for the degree of Bachelor of Arts at the University of New South Wales.

(2) An elective taught by the Department of General Studies and the corresponding Arts subject may not both be counted towards the requirements for the degree and no more than one and a half electives taught by the Department of General Studies may be counted towards the requirements of the degree.

Restrictions on the Selection of Particular Electives

The following restrictions on counting certain General Studies electives apply to students who have completed the subjects listed below offered by the Faculties of Arts and Architecture.

1. Students who have completed 54.501 Political Science I may not count among their General Studies electives 26.1503 Political Conflict in Australia.

2. Students who have completed 50.511 English IA or 50.521 English IB may not count among their General Studies electives:

26.3515 The Modern Novel
26.3516 Australian Fiction since 1970

3. Students who have completed 15.001 Economics IA may not count among their General Studies electives:

26.1504 Political Economy: Adam Smith to Karl Marx
26.1505 Economic Thought: Marginalism to Monetarism
26.1506 Australian Macro-Economic Problems and Policies
26.1507 Australian Micro-Economic Problems and Policies
26.162 Economics
26.163 Economics (Compressed)

4. Students who have completed 11.4307 History of Architecture and Design (World Architecture) may not count among their General Studies electives:

26.3507 Introduction to World Architecture
26.3508 Nineteenth and Twentieth Century Architecture

5. Students who have completed 62.109 or 62.309 History of Medical Theory and Practice may not count among their General Studies electives 26.2506 History of Medicine.

6. Students enrolled in course 3380 may not count among their General Studies electives:

26.3509 History of Landscape Architecture

Note: Due to the change in hours required for electives, the numbering of all electives has changed. Students are requested to check subject descriptions for details of restrictions on entry to particular electives.

Doctor of Philosophy PhD

The degree of Doctor of Philosophy may be undertaken through the Department of General Studies. Candidates who hold appropriate qualifications may submit their proposed area of research to Professor R. Hall, Head of the Department. Acceptance is determined on the basis of suitable qualifications and availability of appropriate supervision.

Elective subjects offered:

- 26.100G The Mass Media
- 26.800G Philosophy of Music
- 26.917G Perspectives on the Cinema

● 26.009G Project Report, requiring the submission of a report of approximately 20,000 words based on original research in the area of the elective chosen.

2430/9100

Master of General Studies MGenStud

The Board of Studies in General Education offers for suitably qualified graduates a program of advanced studies leading to the degree of Master of General Studies. This degree is designed for graduates in an appropriate discipline in which a general studies component or its equivalent has been included, who wish to pursue advanced studies primarily of an interdisciplinary nature. The conditions for the award of this degree are set out later in this handbook.

Course Requirements

The degree of Master of General Studies is attainable by research and thesis (2430) or by course work (9100). The course work option is available on a part-time basis only. The research program may be undertaken on a full-time, part-time or external basis. Normally, the degree is completed over four sessions by part-time students and two sessions by full-time students.

Students choosing the course work option are required to complete the following:

- 26.005G Theory and Method in Humanities and Social Sciences, a compulsory subject requiring attendance at 14 two-hourly seminars which meet fortnightly for two sessions;
- one elective subject, requiring attendance at a weekly seminar of three hours through the four sessions.

Conditions for the Award of Higher Degrees

Rules, regulations and conditions for the award of first degrees are set out in the appropriate Faculty Handbooks.

For the list of undergraduate courses and degrees offered see Disciplines of the University: Faculty Table (Undergraduate Study) in the Calendar.

The following is the list of higher degrees and graduate diplomas of the University, together with the publication in which the conditions for the award appear.

For the list of graduate degrees by research and course work, arranged in faculty order, see Disciplines of the University: Table of Courses (by faculty): Graduate Study in the Calendar.

For the statements Preparation and Submission of Project Reports and Theses for Higher Degrees and Policy with respect to the Use of Higher Degree Theses see the Calendar.

1. The degree of Doctor of Philosophy may be granted by the Council on the recommendation of the Professorial Board to a candidate who has made an original and significant contribution to knowledge and who has satisfied the following requirements:

2. A candidate for registration for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy shall:

- (1) hold an honours degree from the University of New South Wales; or
- (2) hold an honours degree of equivalent standing from another approved university; or
- (3) if the candidate holds a degree without honours from the University of New South Wales or other approved university, and has achieved by subsequent work and study a standard recognised by the Higher Degree Committee of the appropriate faculty or board of studies (hereinafter referred to as the Committee) as equivalent to honours; or
- (4) in exceptional cases, submit such other evidence of general and professional qualifications as may be approved by the Professorial Board on the recommendation of the Committee.

3. When the Committee is not satisfied with the qualifications submitted by a candidate, the Committee may require the candidate, before being permitted to register, to undergo such examination or carry out such work as the Committee may prescribe.

4. A candidate for registration for a course of study leading to the degree of Doctor of Philosophy shall apply to the Registrar on the prescribed form at least one calendar month before the commencement of the session in which registration is to begin.

Doctor of Philosophy (PhD)

Qualifications

Registration

5. Subsequent to registration the candidate shall pursue a program of advanced study and research for at least six academic sessions, save that:

(1) a candidate fully engaged in advanced study and research for the degree, who before registration was engaged upon research to the satisfaction of the Committee, may be exempted from not more than two academic sessions;

(2) in special circumstances the Committee may grant permission for the candidate to spend not more than one calendar year of the program in advanced study and research at another institution provided that the work can be supervised in a manner satisfactory to the Committee;

(3) in exceptional cases, the Professorial Board on the recommendation of the Committee may grant permission for a candidate to be exempted from not more than two academic sessions.

6. A candidate who is fully engaged in research for the degree shall present for examination not later than ten academic sessions from the date of registration. A candidate not fully engaged in research shall present for examination not later than twelve academic sessions from the date of registration. In special cases an extension of these times may be granted by the committee.

7. The candidate shall be fully engaged in advanced study and research, save that:

(1) the Committee may permit a candidate to undertake a limited amount of University teaching or outside work which in its judgment will not interfere with the continuous pursuit of the proposed course of advanced study and research;

(2) a member of the full-time staff of the University may be accepted as a part-time candidate for the degree, in which case the Committee shall prescribe a minimum period for the duration of the program;

(3) in special circumstances, the Committee may, with the concurrence of the Professorial Board, accept as a part-time candidate for the degree a person who is not a member of the full-time staff of the University and is engaged in an occupation which, in its opinion, leaves the candidate substantially free to pursue a program in a school* of the University. In such a case the Committee shall prescribe for the duration of the program a minimum period which, in its opinion, having regard to the proportion of the time which the candidate is able to devote to the program in the appropriate University school* is equivalent to the six sessions ordinarily required.

(4) the Committee may permit a candidate to transfer to part-time enrolment where that candidate has completed the research work, is writing the thesis, and has been registered as a full-time candidate for at least six academic sessions.

8. Every candidate shall pursue a program under the direction of a supervisor appointed by the Committee from the full-time members of the University staff. The work other than field work shall be carried out in a school* of the University save that in special cases the Committee may permit a candidate to conduct the work at other places where special facilities not possessed by the University may be available. Such permission will be granted only if the direction of the work remains wholly under the control of the supervisor.

9. Not later than two academic sessions after registration the candidate shall submit the topic of research for approval by the Committee. After the topic has been approved it may not be changed except with the permission of the Committee.

10. A candidate may be required by the Committee to attend a formal course of appropriate study.

11. On completing the course of study every candidate must submit a thesis which complies with the following requirements:

(1) the greater proportion of the work described must have been completed subsequent to registration for the PhD degree;

(2) it must be an original and significant contribution to the knowledge of the subject;

*Or department where a department is not within a school.

(3) it must be written in English except that a candidate in the Faculty of Arts may be required by the Faculty on the recommendation of the supervisor to write the thesis in an appropriate foreign language;

(4) it must reach a satisfactory standard of expression and presentation.

12. The thesis must present the candidate's own account of the research. In special cases work done conjointly with other persons may be accepted, provided the Committee is satisfied on the candidate's part in the joint research.

13. Every candidate shall be required to submit with the thesis a short abstract of the thesis comprising not more than 350 words.

The abstract shall indicate:

(1) the problem investigated;

(2) the procedures followed;

(3) the general results obtained;

(4) the major conclusions reached;

but shall not contain any illustrative matter, such as tables, graphs or charts.

14. A candidate may not submit as the main content of the thesis any work or material which has previously been submitted for a university degree or other similar award.

15. The candidate shall give in writing two months' notice of intention to submit the thesis.

Entry for Examination

16. Four copies of the thesis shall be presented in a form which complies with the requirements of the University for the preparation and submission of higher degree theses. The candidate may also submit any work previously published whether or not such work is related to the thesis.

17. It shall be understood that the University retains the four copies of the thesis submitted for examination, and is free to allow the thesis to be consulted or borrowed. Subject to the provisions of the Copyright Act, 1968, the University may issue the thesis in whole or in part, in photostat or microfilm or other copying medium.

18. There shall normally be three examiners of the thesis appointed by the Professorial Board on the recommendation of the Committee, at least two of whom shall be external to the University.

19. At the conclusion of the examination each examiner shall submit to the Committee a concise report on the merits of the thesis and shall recommend to the Committee that:

(1) the candidate be awarded the degree without further examination; or

(2) the candidate be awarded the degree without further examination subject to minor corrections as listed being made to the satisfaction of the head of the school*; or

(3) the candidate be awarded the degree subject to a further examination on questions posed in the report, performance in this further examination being to the satisfaction of the Committee; or

(4) the candidate be not awarded the degree but be permitted to resubmit the thesis in a revised form after a further period of study and/or research; or

(5) the candidate be not awarded the degree and be not permitted to resubmit the thesis.

20. If the performance at the further examination recommended under Rule 19. (3) is not to the satisfaction of the Committee the Committee may permit the candidate to re-present the same thesis and submit to a further oral, practical or written examination within a period specified by them but not exceeding eighteen months.

*Or department where a department is not within a school.

21. The Committee shall, after consideration of the examiners' reports and the reports of any oral or written or practical examination, recommend whether or not the candidate may be admitted to the degree.

22. A candidate shall be required to pay such fees as may be determined from time to time by the Council.

Master of General Studies
(MGenStud)

1. The degree of master of General Studies shall be awarded by the Council on the recommendation of the Higher Degree Committee of the Board of Studies in General Education (hereinafter referred to as the Committee) to a candidate who has satisfactorily completed an approved program of advanced study and research.

Qualifications

2. (1) An applicant for registration for the degree shall normally have been admitted to an appropriate degree in the University of New South Wales or other approved university at a level acceptable to the Committee.

(2) In exceptional cases an applicant may be registered as a candidate for the degree by submitting evidence of such academic and professional attainments as may be approved by the Committee.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provisions of these conditions the Committee may require an applicant to demonstrate fitness for registration by completing a qualifying program as determined by the Committee.

Registration and Progression

3. (1) An application to register as a candidate for the degree shall be made on the prescribed form which shall be lodged with the Registrar two months before commencement of the session in which the candidate desires to commence. Where possible, the applicant, before submitting the application, should obtain the approval of the Head of Department of General Studies for the proposed program of study.

(2) The Committee shall determine the date of registration and may admit an approved applicant in one of the following categories of registration:

(a) Student in full-time attendance at the University;

(b) Student in part-time attendance at the University;

(c) Student working externally to the University.

(3) An approved candidate shall be required to undertake a program approved by the Committee under the academic direction of a supervisor appointed by the Committee.

(4) A candidate for the course work degree of Master of General Studies shall complete satisfactorily the program of advanced study comprising formal course work and including where prescribed in course programs the submission of written work and a project report of an original investigation.

(5) A candidate for the research degree of Master of General Studies shall demonstrate ability to carry out research by the submission of a thesis embodying the results of an original investigation.

(6) At least once a year and at any other time that the Committee sees fit, the candidate's supervisor shall present to the Head of Department a report on the progress of the candidate. The Committee shall review the report and as a result of its review may cancel registration or take such other action as it considers appropriate.

(7) Unless otherwise recommended by the Committee, no candidate shall be awarded the degree until the lapse of four complete sessions from the date of registration.

Subject Descriptions

Identification of Subjects by Number

A subject is defined by the Professorial Board as 'a unit of instruction approved by the University as being a discrete part of the requirements for a course offered by the University'.

Each approved subject of the University is identifiable both by number and by name as this is a check against nomination of subject other than the one intended.

Subject numbers are allocated by the Registrar and the system of allocation is based on the following guidelines:

1. The authority offering the subject, normally a School of the University, is indicated by the number before the decimal point.
2. Each subject number is unique and is not used for more than one subject title.
3. Subject numbers which have not been used for some time are not used for new subject titles.
4. Graduate subjects are indicated by a suffix 'G' to a number with three digits after the decimal point. In other subjects three or four digits are used after the decimal point.

Subjects taught are listed in full in the handbook of the faculty or board of studies responsible for the particular course within which the subjects are taken. Subject descriptions are contained in the appropriate section of the handbooks.

The identifying numerical prefixes for each subject authority are set out below.

Servicing Subjects are those taught by a school or department outside its own faculty and are published at the end of Undergraduate Study and Graduate Study of the relevant school. Their subject descriptions are also published in the handbook of the faculty in which the subject is taught.

Principal topics include: the origins of colonial charity and philanthropy; the liberal assumption of uniformly rising living standards for all classes in 19th century Australia; charity and ideology in colonial Victoria; 'deserving' and 'undeserving' poor; women's philanthropy; black Australians and white 'welfare'; economic depressions in the 1890s, 1930s and perhaps today; the ALP and the emergence of a national social policy, 1890-1914; social work as a profession and its contested origins; the problem of the state, class struggle and social order; the rise of the psychiatric hospitals; theory and practice of the Welfare State in Britain and Australia; 'less eligibility' as a key to 19th century welfare and to welfare and labour policy in the 1980s; the opposing epistemologies and methodologies of liberal and socialist historiography.

26.1516 Oral History Workshop (Richard Kennedy)

Students must supply their own cassette recorder and cassettes.

Seminars and workshops on the theory and practice of oral history in Australia. Principal topics include: oral evidence throughout history (eg the Putney Debates of 1647); strengths and limitations of oral evidence compared with other forms; its relation to popular history and the 'silent people'; people's history; the new oral history in Australia, Britain, France, Italy and USA. For the workshop, every student conducts one major interviewing project. The class jointly transcribes, edits and discusses the text of the best interviews.

26.1517 Major Themes in Pacific History (Norman Douglas)

Excluded: 26.412 Social and Political Change in the Pacific Islands.

Significant themes in the traditional and contact history of the Pacific Islands including the controversy surrounding the origins of the islands; the structure of traditional social and political institutions; the impact of European religious and economic systems and the rivalry of imperialist powers in the islands prior to 1900.

26.1518 Social and Political Change in the Twentieth Century Pacific (Norman Douglas)

Excluded: 26.412 Social and Political Change in the Pacific Islands.

Introduction to the geography and indigenous cultures of the Pacific Islands. Significant aspects of social and political change in the region from the period of partition to the present. Topics include: colonial policy in the islands; decolonization; the socio-cultural impact of tourism and the survival of traditional values.

26.1519 Modern China (Roger Bell)

Excluded: 26.4004 China: since the Revolution.

The impact of the West and the collapse of traditional China in the 19th century, then, in detail, the origins and failures of the revolution of 1911 and the causes and nature of the Communist revolution of 1949. Emphasis on social, economic, ideological and political transformation of recent China, its impact on international relations and its role as a revolutionary 'model' for other developing states.

26.1520 Australia in South-East Asia (Robyn Lim)

Excluded: 26.3002 Australia in South-East Asia.

Australia's relations with the ASEAN countries (Indonesia, Philippines, Thailand, Malaysia, Singapore). Emphasis on political and strategic factors, as well as economic issues. Special attention paid to Australian-Indonesian relations and post-1978 situation in Indochina.

Assessment: Based on tutorial participation, tutorial essay and short class test.

26.1521 Australia and Japan (Robyn Lim)

The history of Australia's relations with Japan and the current state of the bilateral relationship. Stress on political and security aspects of the relationship in the context of United States foreign policy. The importance of ASEAN (Association of South-East Asian Nations) to the Australia-Japan connection. The future of the 'Pacific Community' concept. Economic aspects of the bilateral relationship with special reference to Australian resources and industrial relations policies.

26.1522 The Central Nuclear Balance (Richard Lucy)

The debate on aspects of the central nuclear balance. Topics: the assessment of national power as applied to the Soviet Union and the United States; the strategic doctrines of mutual assured destruction and counterforce; the debate about the neutron bomb, about damage limitation, the nuclear arms race, arms control, nuclear disarmament, civil defence, and the broad strategic doctrines of the Soviet Union and the United States.

26.1523 The Mass Media (Jan Bruck)

Major developments of the media, and of media theory, in the 20th century as seen from the Australian context. Topics include: changes in media technology, ownership and control of the media, the transition from literature to electronic communication, the structure and politics of programming, analysis of documentary and fictional texts, the production of news, aspects of audience reception.

26.2504 Philosophy of Technology (Ancient) (Graham Pont)

Excluded: 26.569 Philosophy of Technology.

The philosophy of technology in classical antiquity and the Renaissance, with special reference to Plato, Aristotle and Francis Bacon. Representative writings from each period, as well as recent research, provide the basis for tutorial discussions.

26.2505 Philosophy of Technology (Modern) (Graham Pont)

Excluded: 26.569 Philosophy of Technology.

Not offered in 1984.

This elective forms a sequence with 26.2504 Philosophy of Technology (Ancient), which, however, is not a prerequisite. The history of ideas about technology, arts, crafts, etc, from the 17th to the 20th century, with special reference to recent developments in the philosophy of technology. Weekly tutorial classes are devoted to reading and discussing significant thinkers from Francis Bacon to Henryk Skolimowski.

26.2506 History of Medicine (Randall Albury)

Excluded: 26.568 or 62.109 or 62.309.

General history of medicine from Greek antiquity to the 20th century, with emphasis on the interaction between medical and non-medical areas of culture, including philosophy, religion, science and social development. Primarily designed for medical students; however, open to students from other faculties, and no prior technical knowledge of medical matters is necessary.

26.2507 Philosophy of Science (Phillip Staines)

Excluded: 26.817 Philosophy of Science.

Some of the common forms of argument, eg analogical, deductive, hypothetical, inductive, intuitive, employed in science, and questions of what is meant by scientific knowledge, how it is arrived at, on what grounds it is held, and how it changes. The way science explains empirical 'facts' with the aid of models and analogies and 'laws' of nature; to the kind of understanding its explanations can give us and the confidence with which we may believe its predictions; the tools and ideas of science; the structure and nature of its theories, the status of its principles and concepts, and the dynamics of its development and change.

26.2508 Cosmology (Simon Prokhovnik)

Excluded: 26.566 Cosmology

Recent developments in astrophysical observations and their impact on cosmological theories. The mathematical exposition of cosmological theories and the relation of mathematical models to the physical world and our observations of it. A cosmological model based on the assumption of a uniformly expanding universe together with its implications for relativity and gravitation, and for the nature of matter and of life. Students should have an interest in mathematics and physics and the nature of the world around us. Mathematical descriptions are employed, but the emphasis is on the significance of mathematical concepts rather than on mathematical manipulation.

Electives (56 hours)

26.251 Technology and Society since 1750 (Nessy Allen)

Excluded: 26.564 Technology and Society since 1750.

The development of technology in the last two hundred years has probably been the most important factor determining the economic and social circumstances of contemporary Western society. Yet the social role of technology and the technologist in our community is often not sufficiently appreciated. An adequate understanding of modern society and its problems requires some knowledge of the interrelations between technology and society and the profound consequences that technological innovation can have. These issues in historical perspective and the chief developments in technology from the Industrial Revolution of the 18th century to the present day in their social and economic context. Designed for Engineering and Applied Science students but is open to students from other faculties.

26.252 Man and Environment (Ronnie Harding)

Excluded: 26.200 Man and Environment.

Within the general theme of population resources and environment, a wide range of topics concerned with man's interaction with his environment. The multi- and inter-disciplinary nature of environmental issues with emphasis on global environmental matters and on specific Australian issues.

3. Philosophy and Creative Arts

Half Electives (28 hours)

26.3501 Creative Writing Advanced A (Bob Burns)

Prerequisite: Credit in either 26.352 or 26.3503.

1. Creative aspect: students undertake the writing of several short stories, varied as to emphasis. These are subjected to a thorough 'workshop' scrutiny. 2. Critical aspect: a study of the short story form with reference to the work of established practitioners.

26.3502 Creative Writing Advanced B (Bob Burns)

Prerequisite: Credit in either 26.352 or 26.3503.

1. Creative aspect: students undertake the writing of a fictional narrative, of short 'novella' length. Successive parts of this and then the whole are subjected to a thorough 'workshop' scrutiny. 2. Critical aspect: a study of the novella as a distinct fictional form with reference to the work of established practitioners.

26.3503 Creative Writing — Shorter Course (Bob Burns)

Excluded: 26.7005 Creative Writing (Shorter Course).

A practical subject for students who wish to try their skill in the writing of fiction. They are expected to submit completed work regularly for group discussion. Reference is made during discussion to works of fiction by established writers which students may find helpful and instructive.

26.3504 Issues and Images in Twentieth Century Art (Catherine De Lorenzo)

Excluded: 26.912 Contemporary Art.

The subject does not attempt to cover all major aspects of 20th century art but rather focuses on a particular issue or theme. The subject attempts to: 1. introduce students to various modes of visual art, eg painting, sculpture, photography, printmaking, performances, etc. 2. include, where appropriate, examples from Australia, Europe and America; 3. inter-relate art history and theory to broader historical and socio-political themes, eg fascism, nationalism, capitalism, Marxism, feminism, war; 4. have some course work related to current major exhibitions. Tutorials reflect the themes of the lectures and encourage familiarization with both original documents and recent literature.

26.3505 Aspects of Nineteenth Century Art (Catherine De Lorenzo)

Introduction to major visual concerns of painters, sculptors, print-makers, photographers and crafts people in Europe and/or Australia. Art historical themes such as realism, impressionism, symbolism, women's art and art-for-arts sake are linked with broader art historical themes such as the urban environment, work, nationalism, colonialism and industrialism. Tutorials reflect the themes of the lectures and encourage familiarization with original documents and recent critical evaluations.

26.3506 Research into Australian Art (Catherine De Lorenzo)

Excluded: 26.9001 Research into Australian Art.

Selected aspects of Australian art, not a general historical survey of its development. 1. The study of a few styles selected by the class, viewed in the context of social and national development; in a wider framework, provincial manifestations of the parent styles. Weekly two-hour seminars: students present a short class paper and participate in class discussion. 2. Group and/or individual research projects on either an art work or an artist. Students are given time for research and individual tuition with their tutor.

26.3507 Introduction to World Architecture (Richard Apperly)

Excluded: 26.914 History of Architecture or 11.4307 World Architecture.

A broad study of architecture throughout the world from the beginning of civilization to the Industrial Revolution. Architecture as an expression of social, cultural, economic and religious forces and attitudes. The modifying effects of climate, environment, materials and technology. Illustrated lectures; tutorials and assignments related to the above themes.

26.3508 Nineteenth and Twentieth Century Architecture (Richard Apperly)

Excluded: 26.914 History of Architecture or 11.4307 History of Architecture and Design (World Architecture).

Changes to western civilization and its architecture brought about by the Renaissance and the Industrial Revolution. Industrialization and the growth of cities. Colonial expansion. 19th century revival styles; art nouveau; the Arts and Crafts movement. Early modern architecture; the International Style; developments after World War II. Is modern architecture dead? Australian architecture is related to all of the above topics. Illustrated lectures; tutorials and assignments related to the above themes.

26.3509 History of Landscape Architecture (C. A. Burton)

Excluded: 26.913 History of Landscape Architecture, 37.9013 History of Landscape Architecture.

The origins and development of cultural landscapes including changing patterns of land use throughout history as a reflection of their times and an expression of man's attitude toward nature and his basic individual and social needs. The cultures and movements include Ancient Egypt, Mesopotamia, Greece, Imperial Rome, the Middle Ages, Islamic Cultures in Persia, Spain, North Africa and India, Ancient India, China and Pre-Columbian America, the Renaissance in Europe, the English Landscape School and the Picturesque, the Industrial Revolution and Scientific Plant Exploration, American Public Park Movements, Japan, Australian and contemporary developments.

26.3510 Music of Transplanted Cultures: Colonial Australia and Colonial America (Roger Covell/Patricia Brown)

The functions of music in two transplanted cultures, namely, in colonial North America and colonial Australia. Sacred and secular music, the uses of music for political purposes and propaganda, the importance of domestic and mass music-making in relation to the social movements of the times. Other topics include: traditional music, the musical effects of colonialism and efforts to establish a national music in both countries.

26.3511 Music in Films, Television and Advertising (Roger Covell/Patricia Brown)

Excluded: 26.911 Music in Drama or 26.910 Music and Human Behaviour.

The role of music in film from its beginnings to the present day and the function of music in television. Special emphasis on the work of significant film composers and the working and production methods of composing music for film. The relationship of music and advertising, especially in television.

26.3513 Music for the Stage (Roger Covell/Patricia Brown)

Excluded: 26.911 Music in Drama.

Music's role in the drama of ancient Greece and medieval western Europe; particular emphasis on music's function in Elizabethan and Jacobean theatre; and in spoken theatre to the present day; the role of music in non-Western theatre, especially in the traditional drama of Indonesia and Japan; the musical-dramatic procedures of early opera, the basic tactics of modern music theatre and of the modern American musical.

26.3514 Applied Logic (Phillip Staines)

Prerequisites: 26.817/26.2507 Philosophy of Science; 26.816/26.353 Rationality and Critical Thought; 26.811/26.354 Communication and Uses of Language. Excluded: 26.814 Applied Logic.

Not offered in 1984.

A further study of the processes of reasoning in their natural contexts; argument, discussion, dialogue and debate. An historical review of theories of reasoning and systems of debate.

26.3515 The Modern Novel (Bob Burns)

Excluded: 26.7001 Modern Novel.

A reading and discussion subject that traces something of the tendencies and the general characteristics of novel writing in the 20th century, through consideration of a variety of works by English, Australian, American, Asian and European writers.

26.3516 Australian Fiction since 1970 (Bob Burns)

Excluded: 26.7002 Australian Fiction since 1970.

Australian novelists and short-story writers, during the present decade, have shown a growing awareness of the times, more than just the place in which we live. They are actively 'in touch' with what their contemporaries in other countries are about. The gain in sophistication is clear. Yet the desire remains to take a standpoint which is clearly Australian. A study of how certain writers reconcile the two pressures.

26.3517 Modern Drama (Jan Bruck)

Excluded: 26.730 Modern Drama.

Major directions of 20th century European, American and Australian drama and theatre-making (social drama, epic theatre, existentialist and absurdist plays, radical and avant-garde theatre, television and popular drama) as related to changes in the political and social sphere. As part of the required work students may participate in the production of a play.

26.3518 Approaches to Actuality: Non-fiction Film (Norman Douglas)

Excluded: 26.9003 Approaches to Actuality: The Non-fiction Film.

Not offered in 1984.

Because of its uncommercial nature, the non-fiction film tends to suffer neglect both in the cinema business and in literature on the cinema. However, a persistent tradition in cinema has been concerned with the actuality film in its different manifestations — as information, documentary, propaganda, etc. The elective traces development of non-fiction film from an historical viewpoint, and examines themes and theories associated with the concept of actuality films and, in particular, with the notion of 'documentary'.

Note: Because of the running times of most films, classes are of 2½-3 hours duration.

26.3519 Introduction to Film History (Norman Douglas)

Excluded: 26.917 Introduction to Cinema.

Not offered in 1984.

The technical foundations of cinema and various critical and theoretical approaches. A systematic study of the most significant movements in film history until c. 1960. These include: the classic American cinema; the revolutionary cinema of Russia; German 'expressionist' films of the 1920s; French 'poetic realism'; Italian 'neo-realism'.

Note: Because of the running times of most films, classes are of 2½-3 hours duration.

26.3520 Music and Human Behaviour (Roger Covell/Patricia Brown)

Excluded: 26.910 Music and Human Behaviour.

The role of music in magic, ritual and religion, the social and economic basis of jazz and the recent history of pop and rock, rise of the concert industry, the problem of noise and the presence of piped and other background music, the political use of music in revolutionary societies, the place of music in the tribal society of the Australian Aboriginal, and the newer genres of performance based on a concept of music as behaviour.

Electives (56 hours)

26.351 Gastronomy: a Philosophical Introduction to Food in Society (Graham Pont)

Excluded: 26.919 Food in History.

The history and theory of food in western culture since prehistoric times, starting with the hunter-gatherer economy as typified by traditional Australian Aboriginal society. Topics include: current research and speculation on the origins of agriculture; the beginnings of gastronomic literature in ancient Greece and its revival in the Renaissance; the social history of the various European cuisines; the rise of cookery as a fine art; the establishment of modern gastronomic literature by Grimod de la Reyniere and Brillat-Savarin; the development of food science and technology; and the history of the Australian diet since colonial times. Tutorials complement lectures with detailed study of historical documents, and the theories of Brillat-Savarin.

26.352 Creative Writing (Bob Burns)

Excluded: 26.713 Creative Writing.

A practical subject for students who wish to try their skill in the writing of fiction. They are expected to submit completed work regularly for group discussion. Reference is made during discussion to works of fiction by established writers which students may find helpful and instructive.

26.353 Rationality and Critical Thought (Phillip Staines)

Excluded: 26.816 Rationality and Critical Thought.

The nature of reason: in particular, its scope, place, practice and worth, aiming at an understanding of reason and a competence in its evaluation. Reflecting the pervasiveness of reason, introduction and methodology, decision theory, theory of language, psychology and the general theory of knowledge. Rational conduct and rational belief: what it is rational to do and what it is rational to believe.

Topics: 1. Rational conduct: the relation between reason and emotion; the rationality of goals, ends, wants, plans of life, etc.; limitations of the rationality of decisions. 2. Rational belief: the relation between argument and belief; the nature of critical enquiry; fallacies; rhetoric, propaganda and brain-washing; the relation between rational belief and faith; the relation between language and thought; scepticism.

26.354 Communication and the Uses of Language (Phillip Staines)

Excluded: 26.811 Communication and Uses of Language.

Not offered in 1984.

It is widely held that the human use of signs, especially the natural languages, is what most sharply distinguishes us from other animals. The nature and function of signs and symbols both in humans and other species — a field known as semiotics. Uses of signs, especially in communication. Linguistic behaviour is contrasted with other forms of purposive behaviour. Topics include: theories of language and sign acquisition, the nature of body language, paralanguage, kinesics and proxemics; the conventionality of language; the nature of meaning; the means and meaning of expression; alternative systems of communication; the necessary skills and abilities of sign users.

26.355 Philosophy of Music (Graham Pont)

Excluded: 26.815 Philosophy of Music.

What Western philosophers have said about music, its origins, nature, function, purpose, meaning and value. Special attention to classical Greek philosophy: the prehistory of Pythagorean ideas, the writings of Plato, Aristotle and Aristoxenus, and the influence of their thought during the Renaissance and the Enlightenment. Tutorials include preparation for students' individual research projects, the main form of assessment for the course.

26.356 Popular Culture (Jan Bruck)

Excluded: 26.722 Popular Culture.

Contemporary forms of popular/mass culture and their historical evolution: popular literature, crime, fiction in film and TV, advertising, popular music, sport and other leisure activities, as experienced in the Australian context. Some major theoretical perspectives on popular culture and its relationship to mass media technologies. Clarification of fundamental terms and concepts applied to the analysis of culture and the media (eg high/popular culture, folk/mass culture, culture industry).

phonograph, oscillograph, and other instruments for the precise recording and analysing of sound. An overview of theoretical music as a scientific discipline as well as an evaluation of the implications of the new knowledge for the traditional philosophical issues.

26.917G Perspectives on the Cinema

Not offered in 1984.

Major issues in current film theory and criticism. Film history, aesthetics and criticism considered in the light of theoretical concepts derived from a number of related disciplines: eg linguistics, semiology, psychoanalysis, sociology. The insights which are argued to result from these perspectives are compared with the more conventional historical and critical approaches to the cinema.
