HANDBOOK

1997

Subjects, courses and any arrangements for courses including staff allocated as stated in this Handbook are an expression of intent only. The University reserves the right to discontinue or vary arrangements at any time without notice. Information has been brought up to date as at 1 November 1996, but may be amended without notice by the University Council.

The offering of courses or subjects is subject to the availability of staff and sufficient enrolments. The College reserves the right to change the content of or withdraw any subjects at any time without notice. Limitations on the number of students in a subject may have to be imposed where the availability of equipment or studio or laboratory space is restricted.

CREDIT POINTS – IMPORTANT NOTE

From 1996, UNSW introduced a university wide credit point system for all subjects offered to both undergraduate and postgraduate students. The system means that a subject will have the same credit point value irrespective of which faculty's course it is counting towards. Students are able to determine the value of subjects taken from other faculties when planning their programs of study. The student load for a subject is calculated by dividing the credit point value of a subject by the total credit points required for the standard program for that year of the course. Student load is used to determine both HECS and overseas student fees. Students who take more than the standard load for that year of a course will pay more HECS.

Old subject measures have been replaced by new university credit points. Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the credit point values shown for all subjects. However, if any inconsistencies between old and new credit point measures cause concern, students are advised to check with their faculty office for clarification before making 1997 subject selections based on the credit points shown in this handbook.

COFA Campus Location	104

1997 sees the College of Fine Arts (COFA) entering its 23rd year as a tertiary art and design institution, having been a faculty of UNSW for the past seven years.

COFA's revised mission statement set out the faculty's focus:

Through accent on:

- diversity and integration across the domain of the visual arts and design
- excellence in art and design research, development and teaching
- an international involvement with art and design
- interaction with the art and design community
- UNSW, COFA will gain international acknowledgment as a leading faculty of Fine Arts.

Through the College's now well established structure of four professional schools; School of Art, School of Design Studies, School of Art Education and School of Art History and Theory, a comprehensive range of undergraduate, postgraduate and research courses are offered to an enrolment in excess of 1,100.

From January, 1997 the Bachelor of Applied Arts (Craft Arts) degree will be offered out of COFA, having transferred from the UNSW St George campus. The core studies in this course will be the responsibility of the School of Design Studies, with electives offered from across the College and the University.

The College is extremely proud of the quality of its staff, academic, technical, administrative and professional. It is also confident that the facilities and courses are the best possible. The geographic location close to galleries and art and craft shops, along with being part of one of Australia's leading universities, makes being a student both a pleasure and a challenge.

The challenge is to at least do as well as those who have gone before. In fact let's try to do even better. If as a new student you set this goal for yourself, you take advantage of what COFA through its art and design courses at Paddington have to offer, then you will surely make a success of your time at UNSW and reap the rewards.

Schools of the College of Fine Arts The University of New South Wales

The College of Fine Arts consists of four schools divided into a number of related subject study areas through which the subjects and courses of the College are offered.

The School of Art

The School of Art consists of the studies of Painting, Drawing, Printmaking (including etching, lithography, relief and silk screen printing), Photomedia (including photo based media, digital imaging and photo/installation), Four Dimensional Time Based Studies (including film, computer animation, multi-media computing, sound/performance/installation and video), Sculpture Studies (including clay, ceramics, object/installation, and jewellery/bodyworks).

The School of Art Education

This school comprises studies in Art Education.

The School of Art History and Theory

This school includes studies in art history and theory and art administration.

The School of Design Studies

This school comprises studies in design and applied arts.

The Clement Semmler Library

The Clement Semmler Library is both a specialist art collection and a research and information centre catering for the needs of students and staff of the College of Fine Arts and the University of New South Wales.

The Library has a good collection of books and serials on the visual arts and design with particular strengths in the areas of Australian and modern Western art. A substantial audiovisual collection which includes slides, video cassettes and interactive CD-ROM enhances the printed collection.

Researchers have access to the library's specialist art and design bibliographic databases as well as a wide range of databases via UNSW Library's CD-ROM network. Access to contemporary Australian material is enhanced by in-house indexes to newspaper clippings and Australian art journals.

Access to the collection is via the UNSW Library's online catalogue, supplemented by locally produced printout catalogues for some AV material and an in-house, online slide catalogue.

Professional library staff are available to assist with a range of services designed to ensure that all users can make best use of the information resources available.

Ivan Dougherty Gallery

The Ivan Dougherty Gallery was established in 1977 by the Alexander Mackie College of Advanced Education at 200 Cumberland Street, The Rocks and was named after Major General Sir Ivan Dougherty, Chairman of the first College Council.

When funds were made available to refurbish the Albion Avenue Public School built in Paddington in 1894, part of the ground floor was developed as the Ivan Dougherty Gallery's new premises. These were opened on 16 June 1981.

The purpose of the Gallery is to provide an educational and cultural resource for the students and staff of the College of Fine Arts, The University of New South Wales and the general public. The Gallery mounts around ten to twelve group or thematic exhibitions per year of Australian and International contemporary art, occasionally with an historical component incorporating all media and disciplines: painting, sculpture, printmaking, drawing, design, installation, photography, video, computer, performance and time based art.

A forum is organised in conjunction with each exhibition, which facilitates an exchange of ideas between artists, theoreticians, curators and students. In addition, floor talks on the exhibitions are staged in the Gallery for the benefit of students and the wider community.

Committed to stretching the boundaries of current art practice, the Gallery also coordinates Live Actions, a series of events and performances by contemporary Australian performers and performance artists.

Gallery hours: Mon-Fri 10.00 am – 5.00 pm; Sat 1.00 pm – 5.00 pm. Closed public holidays.

- Academic, e.g. essay writing, seminar presentation, teaching skills, communication;
- Interpersonal relationships; and
- Other stresses which are affecting their ability to fulfil their potential as a student or a member of staff.

All consultations are confidential. If the counsellor is unable to assist, referrals can be made to appropriate persons or organisations.

Equal Opportunity in Education Policy Statement

Under the Federal Racial Discrimination Act (1975), Sex Discrimination Act (1984), Disability Discrimination Act (1992) and the New South Wales Anti-Discrimination Act (1977), the University is required not to discriminate against students or prospective students on the grounds of sex, marital status, pregnancy, race, nationality, national or ethnic origin, colour, homosexuality or disability. Under the University of New South Wales Act (1989), the University declares that it will not discriminate on the grounds of religious or political affiliations, views or beliefs.

University Commitment to Equal Opportunity in Education

As well as recognising its statutory obligations as listed, the University will eliminate discrimination on any other grounds which it deems to constitute disadvantage. The University is committed to providing a place to study free from harassment and discrimination, and one in which every student is encouraged to work towards her/his maximum potential. The University further commits itself to course design, curriculum content, classroom environment, assessment procedures and other aspects of campus life which will provide equality of educational opportunity to all students.

Special Admissions Schemes

The University will encourage the enrolment of students who belong to disadvantaged groups through programs such as the University Preparation Program and the ACCESS Scheme. Where members of disadvantaged groups are particularly under-represented in certain disciplines, the responsible faculties will actively encourage their enrolment.

Support of Disadvantaged Students

The University will provide support to assist the successful completion of studies by disadvantaged group members through such means as the Aboriginal Education Program, the Supportive English Program and the Learning Centre. It will work towards the provision of other resources, such as access for students with impaired mobility, assistance to students with other disabilities, the provision of a parents' room on the upper campus, and increased assistance with English language and communication.

Course Content, Curriculum Design, Teaching and Assessment, and Printed Material

Schools and faculties will monitor course content (including titles), teaching methods, assessment procedures, written material (including study guides and handbook and Calendar entries) and audiovisual material to ensure that they are not discriminatory or offensive and that they encourage and facilitate full participation in education by disadvantaged people.

Equal Opportunity Adviser Scheme

The University will continue its Equal Opportunity Adviser Scheme for students who feel that they have been harassed or who consider they have been disadvantaged in their education by practices and procedures within the University.

Harassment Policy

The University is committed to ensuring freedom from harassment for all people working or studying within the institution. It will continue to take action, including disciplinary action, to ensure that freedom from harassment is achieved.

The Students' Association

All students of the College are members of the Students' Association from which students are elected as representatives on various College boards and committees. Within the University of New South Wales, the College of Fine Arts Students' Association has a Memorandum of Agreement with other student bodies and Sporting Associations which ensures equity and a spirit of reciprocity.

The Association is financed by a compulsory fee collected by the University on behalf of the Association as part of the enrolment procedure and is administered by the Executive and staff.

The Association is involved with the organisation of activities that include an on-campus Art Materials Store; an off-campus gallery, Arthaus, lunch time activities (barbeques, films, bands, guest speakers). It supports clubs and societies such as The Temporal Visual Arts Society and the Christian Fellowship and encourages students to involve themselves in interest groups on and off campus.

Through representations on College boards and committees the Association may communicate with the Dean and Director on matters affecting the student body and plays an active role in the decision making process of the College.

COFA3014

Sculpture 1

S2 HPW6 CP20

Prerequisite: Introductory Studies: Photomedia, Sculpture, Time Based Art

This studio based subject provides the basic foundations for sculptural studies through a series of projects that are a trajectory into the students' personal creative enquiries. The projects foster a marriage of concept to process, intention to outcomes. Critical awareness and interpretive skills are developed along with an understanding of basic sculptural languages such as metaphor, narrative, metonymy, space, space, materiality, form, mass, scale.

The interdisciplinary nature of contemporary sculptural practice is emphasised and includes a diversity of experiences such as working with time, light, installation, jewellery, ceramics, 3D digital visualisation, sound, collaboration and performance, as well as exploratory applications of traditional forms and methodologies.

COFA3015

Time Based Art 1

S2 HPW6 CP20

Prerequisite: Introductory Studies: Photomedia, Sculpture, Time Based Art

Time Based Art is a cluster of units dealing with the complex multiplicity of artistic forms which use the passage of and the manipulation of time as the essential element. Time Based Art 1 introduces key concepts in time based art with specific reference to film, video art and installation, sound, performance and multi-media computing. The subject develops critical awareness by close study of histories of the moving image and the expressive use of technology and the human body. Concurrently the subject provides preliminary technical training in the various technologies used in the production of video, sound and performance works.

COFA3802

Drawing

S2 HPW3 CP10

This subject will provide a foundation of drawing skills and introduce students to a basic drawing vocabulary. A range of approaches will be taken and diverse media will be explored. Through the investigation of drawing process, students will be encouraged to develop an expression appropriate to and integrated with their major area of art practice.

gain a critical understanding of the historical discourses and art practices which structure the understanding of the practice of art.

COFA3021

Drawing/Painting 2

F HPW8 CP40

Prerequisite: Drawing/Painting 1 or Drawing Elective or Painting Elective

In this subject students will investigate and imaginatively interpret significant concepts and connections of the disciplines of drawing and painting. COFA3022

Photomedia 2

F HPW8 CP40

Prerequisite: Photomedia 1 or Photomedia Elective

This is a studio based subject with an emphasis on placing the student's practice in the context of art history and studio theory. The subject extends the development of photomedia technical skills by introducing the student to digital/analogous colour processes and advanced studio based equipment. Students explore a diversity of conceptual approaches in order to extend their use of visual language. Students are directed toward an analysis and critical awareness of current visual arts practice, central to the production and advancement of their own work.

Printmaking 2

F HPW8 CP40

Prerequisite: Printmaking 1 or Etching Elective or Lithography Elective or Relief Printing Elective or Screen Printing Elective

In this subject students will investigate and imaginatively interpret the significant concepts and conventions of the disciplines within printmaking. In consultation with lecturers, students will begin to develop a program of printmaking studies which reflects their individual interests and which may be built upon and expanded in subsequent sessions. Various media, techniques and aspects of printmaking will be examined, and students will be encouraged to develop concepts relating to the characteristics of specific media. Workshop procedures, and documentation and conservation of prints will be covered.

Sculpture 2

F HPW8 CP40

Students may choose to produce divergent or interdisciplinary works such as spatial, temporal,

Second Year

COFA2003

Art History and Theory 3

F HPW2 CP20

This subject will critically examine aspects of art history and theory which can be seen as relevant to contemporary visual arts. Art History and Theory 3 will enable students to ephemeral or performative installations, or develop particular sculptural forms or mediums such as jewellery, bronze casting. The emphasis at this stage is on an open-ended, exploratory investigation of sculptural language, the stimulation of the imagination, the development of creative ideas and rigorous studio methodologies. These are supported by the acquisition of skills pertinent to the students' needs, including the presentation and documentation of completed works.

Time Based Art 2

F HPW8 CP40

Prerequisite: Time Based Art 1 or Animation Elective or Multi-media Computing Elective or Performance Elective or Sound Studio Elective or Video Elective

This subject develops the conceptual understanding and technical skills underpinning practice in time based arts. Screening programs and analysis of sound, the moving image and performance augment the students knowledge of the traditions and contemporary contexts of technological art forms. Students become familiar with the processes of video production, 16mm cinematography and editing and/or computer-based image and sound technologies. Students are directed to develop a body of work which integrates technical and conceptual approaches.

Third Year

COFA2004

Art History and Theory 4

S1 HPW2 CP10

This subject will explore the many interrelationships between artistic practices, whether, drawing, painting, printmaking, photomedia, sculpture, or time based art, and critical and theoretical issues that arise out of these practices and have been used to 'frame' and comprehend them. Many modern and postmodern artists chose to carry a 'toolbox' of history and of philosophical assumptions into the studio with them. The overall aim is to enable students to gain a critical understanding of both the historical and contemporary discourses which have framed our understanding of the role and meaning of art.

COFA3800

Professional Practice

S2 HPW2 CP10

This subject will prepare students completing the BFA for professional practice as artists (or as arts-related professionals) in Australia.

COFA3031

Drawing/Painting 3

F HPW8 CP40

Prerequisite: Drawing/Painting 2

In this subject students will concentrate upon their major creative interests. Students will be required to initiate and execute a body of studio work which demonstrates the relationship between their own work and current art practices and concepts. Students will be encouraged to analyse the relationship between perceived aims and results achieved in their studio practice.

COFA3032

Photomedia 3

F HPW8 CP40

Prerequisite: Photomedia 2

In this subject the student will concentrate on the production of a substantial body of work which demonstrates an understanding and refinement of the concepts and contexts central to their individual art practice. The works produced will be a culmination of intensive research and study within the area of photomedia. The investigation is initiated by the student and undertaken with lecturer supervision. It is expected that students will continue to refine their digital/analogue technical skills to a standard appropriate to the concerns in their work. Students are directed toward an analysis and critical awareness of current visual arts practices and issues. Interdisciplinary studies are encouraged where relevant to the projects undertaken.

Printmaking 3

F HPW8 CP40

Prerequisite: Printmaking 2

This subject will continue to build upon concepts and skills developed in previous sessions. Students will investigate the creative possibilities of media appropriate to the expression of individual ideas. Students will concentrate upon their major creative interests and will be required to initiate and execute a body of studio work which demonstrates the relationship between their own work and current art practices and concepts. A proposal outlining intended studies may be required.

Sculpture 3

F HPW8 CP40

Prerequisite: Sculpture 2

This studio based subject centres upon the students' self initiated work programs which are devised in consultation with their lecturers towards the development of their emergent practice. Tutorials, the acquisition of advanced skills and studio research methodologies, the presentation of seminars by each student about the content and contexts of their practice are employed to achieve a thorough knowledge and critical awareness of contemporary sculptural practice and an ability to articulate the concerns of their art making.

Students are required to furnish support material and documentation of works produced during the subject, along with a body of work representative of the culmination of an intensive application of their studies.

COFA3035

Time Based Art 3

F HPW8 CP40

Prerequisite: Time Based Art 2

This subject furthers the students' knowledge of the art historical contexts and interdisciplinary skills necessary to time based art practices. Students are expected to develop an area of research relevant to their individual art practice. The students concentrate on producing a substantial body of work which demonstrates an understanding and refinement of the concepts and contexts central to their work. Specialised content extends the students technical and conceptual skills in the use of film, video, audio and multi-media computing technologies. Concurrently, the subject deepens the students' critical comprehension of time based forms through study and analysis of different art works in the screening and presentation programs.

History and Theory Electives

Timetable constraints do not allow all subjects to be offered every year, although endeavours are made to offer the full range over a three year period.

COFA2218

The Art of Ancient Cultures: Assyria, Mesopotamia, Egypt, Persia, Greece and Rome

Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

Egyptian pharaoh pyramids, tombs and culture of death, the sculpture and friezes of Assyria and Mesopotamia will be examined in relation to the break-up of the Mycenaean world and matriachal cultures, together with the shifts of dominance in the Eastern Mediterranean by the Persian Empire, until its defeat by the Greeks.

The supremacy of the Athenian Greeks, their rule of demos (democracy) and ethos (ethics) will be explored in relation to their new Classical Order articulated through temples and sculpture, philosophy, poetry and drama, together with the shift to Alexandria and Hellenism, and the ultimate displacement and appropriation of Greek culture by the Roman Empire.

COFA2212

Early Christian, Islamic and Other Cultures

Staff Contact: Craig Judd
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

Starting with the displacement of Rome by Ravenna and Constantine's Byzantium as the new centre of Christianity, the power of the Romanized Christian Empire will be traced, in conjunction with the flourishing of Early Christian, Carolingian, Romanesque and Gothic art and culture, until the fall of Constantinople to the Turks in 1453.

The shift from a rational scientific and materialist philosophy of ancient Greece and Rome to Christian faith and spiritual values, articulated by such theologians as St. Augustine and scholastics as Abelard and Thomas Aquinas, will be examined in relation to Mohammed's conquest of Mecca, the Muslim faith and the spread of the Islamic Empire.

COFA2208

The Medieval and Renaissance Cultures of Europe

Staff Contact: A/Professor Alan Oldfield
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

Within a shift from remote monastic settlements into towns from the 12th century, the emergence of urban cultures will be examined in relation to the organization of the artist's workshop, a domestication of religious imagery, the flourishing of fresco narrative, the emergence of secular patronage and its ramifications upon new genres of art and culture.

Humanism and the recording of the Antique, Nominalism and Neoplatonic philosophy, expansions of trade routes and global exploration, together with the rise of European and 'New World' power in such centres as Italy, Holland, Portugal and Spain, will define an historical context for the examination of Renaissance art and culture, and artists as diverse as Donatello, Piero della Francesca, Holbein, Jan Van Eyck and Bosch.

COFA2132

From The Age of Absolutism to The Enlightenment: Mannerism and the Baroque

Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

This moment in European history – a moment precipitating the colonisation of Australia – often regarded as marking the transition between feudalism and the modern State, will be explored through the centralization of absolute power by such monarchs as Louis XIV, the relationship between dynastic control, Enlightenment ideas and the growth of parliament and ways this lead to reform, revolution and 'democracy.'

The interrelationship between Mannerist and Baroque art, within the 17th and 18th century shift of centre from Italy to France, will be examined in this context, together with ways such art became displaced by new concepts and genres of culture and revolutionary art.

COFA2136

The Avant-Garde and the Academy, the Politics of Colonialism and the 'Other' in Europe 1780-1850

Staff Contact: Fay Brauer
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

Following Napoleon's blaze of European and colonial conquests and his downfall, a waning of revolutionary fervour marked early 19th century reaction in Europe, in which church, monarchy and such authoritarian institutions as The Academy for Arts became reactivated, but subsequently contested.

The schism between Neoclassicism and Romanticism, concepts of art-for-art's-sake, oppositions to academic art, the rise of 'Orientalism', the emergence of photography and formations of an 'avant-garde' are issues which will be examined in this context, through such artists as Ingres, Canova, Goya, Turner, Daumier and Delacroix.

COFA2276

The Painting of Modern Life: French and British Painting in Focus, 1850-1890

Staff Contact: Dr Alan Krell
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

This subject focuses on Realist and Impressionist painting in the second half of the nineteenth-century in France and England. The work is considered within changing social, political and cultural contexts, with special attention paid to its critical reception manifested in reviews and cartoons. Questions to do with gender, class, sexuality, labour and leisure are examined in relation to Courbet, Manet, Morisot, Degas, Holman Hunt and Ford Madox Brown, among others, as well as lesser known figures such as Augustus Egg and Francois Salle.

COFA2140Modernism and the 20th Century Experience of Modernity 1890-1950Staff Contact: Fay Brauer*

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

This subject has been constructed to explore the interrelationship between the rapidly changing conditions of technological modernity and modernist cultures.

This exploration will be undertaken through a close examination of individuals and particular groups of artists, such as the Cubists, Futurists, German Expressionists, Surrealists and Russian Constructivists, and the ways in which their art affirms, denies or interrogates modernity.

COFA2285Art and Revolution: The Cultures of Communism, Socialism, Fascism and DemocracyStaff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory*

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

With the burst of utopian fervour following the 1917 October Revolution in the Soviet Union the Mexican Revolution and the November Revolution in Germany, a diversity of experimental Modernist art flourished through such artists as Rodchenko, El Lissitzky, Mayakovsky, Vertov and Eisenstein in the Soviet Union, George Grosz, Kathe Kollwitz, Hannah Hoch and John Heartfield in Germany, together with Diego Rivera and Frida Kahlo in Mexico and Americans like Ben Shahn and Phillip Guston working in support of Roosevelt's New Deal.

Concentrating upon the interwar period, the emergence of a diverse range of Modernist revolutionary art will be examined in relation to Communism, Socialism, European and American democracies and Fascism, together with ways it became expunged through the imposition of Soviet Socialist Realism, following Stalin's collectivization and Hitler's notorious Degenerate Art Exhibition in Nazi Germany.

COFA2284Postindustrialisation, Postmodernity and PostmodernismStaff Contact: Craig Judd*

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

Hyperreality, a society of spectacle and simulacra, an age of postindustrial technocracy, consumerism, obsolescence and the end of ideology are all terms used to characterise Postmodernity and distinguish it from The Modern.

While the conjunctions of Modernism to Postmodernism remains a contentious issue, their interrelationship will be examined through such characteristics, together with ways in which Postmodernism has been defined through art and culture.

COFA2227Histories of Women ArtistsStaff Contact: Dian Lloyd*

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

This subject will critically examine the issues of gender in art history from a number of perspectives.

Social and cultural analysis will be applied to the work of a variety of women artists. Art Historical perspectives will be subjected to a feminist reading.

COFA2289Reading the CountryStaff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory*

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

Landscape has been regarded, since its inception as a genre of Western Art, as a means of transforming nature into culture. This subject examines different ways in which nature has been transformed into landscape in Western Art from the illuminated manuscripts of the Duc de Berry, the timeless arcadias of Poussin and Claude, the sublime landscapes of Friedrich and Eugene von Guerard to the abstract notations of Fred Williams. These landscapes will be compared with non-Western representations of nature by such aboriginal artists as Clifford Possum, as well as the Navaro Indian and Chinese artists.

Such historical contexts as feudalism (with its social hierarchy based upon tenure of land), the development of geographer's and surveyor's instruments, the Enclosure Acts and colonisation, particularly of Australia, will provide the framework for such readings of the country. Analogies between visually representing the land and possessing it as territory will also be investigated, partially in light of the Mabo case.

COFA2259Australian Art and Culture: Aboriginal and Colonial Art to 1870.Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory*

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

As is now well documented, the colonization of Australia did not directly follow from early European explorers and traders voyages to Terra Australis, the great unknown land lying in the southern hemisphere, but from the political, economic and social circumstances of George III's England at the end of the Enlightenment. Whilst myths of Terra Australis will be examined in this Subject, the prime focus will be upon the process of colonization, the institution of a penal colony and its impact upon the indigeneous Aboriginal population. The emergence of a colonial culture with such artists as Joseph Lycett, will also be examined, together with the shifts in society and culture, and representations of gender, aborigines and 'migrant races' which occurred during the Gold Rush period with such professional artists as John Glover, Eugene Von Guerard and Adelaide Irnside, and such growing patrons as the State's Galleries.

COFA2108Australian Art and Culture 1870-World War Two: Nation Formation and Responses to ModernityStaff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn*

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

The transition from established colonies to an emerging nation found expression in the art of the Australian settlers. Conventionally, this process is represented through certain landscape traditions, notably the rural 'bush' mythology. This subject examines the diverse art of the emerging nation, including the rural tradition along with other genres. The foundations of national culture were built on unresolved and troubling responses to modernity, on the one hand, and the displacement of Aboriginal peoples by European settlement, on the other.

Formations of nation leading to Federation will be explored in relation to the 'open-air' camps of painting and the Heidelberg School, aesthetics and the revival of classicism through such artists as Norman Lindsay, as well as the emergence of Modernism with such seminal figures as Grace Cossington-Smith. 'The Second Phase of Modernism', as Bernard Smith calls the period from the Great Depression to World War Two, will be considered through such artists as Grace Crowley, Frank Hinder, Thea Proctor and Margaret Preston.

COFA2260

Australian Art and Culture WW2–1973: Angry Penguins, Antipodeans and Abstractionists

Staff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

Angry Penguins, including Albert Tucker, Arthur Boyd, Yosi Bergner and Joy Hester, will be examined in relation to their journal published by Max Harris and John Reed, and in conjunction with the ideological and material disruptions of World War II.

Amidst a Cold War context, the grouping of such artists as Arthur Boyd and John Brack under the banner of Bernard Smith's Antipodean Manifesto, will be explored, in conjunction with American cultural imperialism and the growth of lyrical abstraction, the Charm School and the Contemporary Art Society's debates around Sydney art as decorative surface, questions of social conscience, vapid consumerism and the Annandale Imitation Realists, together with such issues as representing Australianess, its myths and land, through such art as Sidney Nolan's Ned Kelly series and John Olsen's You Beaut Country.

COFA2109

Contemporary Australian art and culture

Staff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn

The artists and the art of contemporary Australia is explored in the contexts of local, regional, national and international art and cultural relations. Students will be expected to pay close attention to current exhibitions and to extend their familiarity with contemporary Australian art beyond the most readily accessible art exhibited in Sydney. This subject goes beyond a review of individual artists and artworks to focus on ways in which underlying and unresolved cultural concerns, consensus and conflict, as well as shifts in artistic practices are identified in contemporary art.

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

COFA2110

Australian Identity Formation Through Visual and Material Culture

Staff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

Australian artists and writers played a major role in shaping Australian notions of nationhood and identity. This subject critically examines theories of cultural and national identity, nationalism and nation formation through the interdisciplinary and intertextual study of Australian cultural production, with a particular emphasis on visual and material culture. Historical and contemporary works will be studied in the context of shifts in concepts of nation and identity.

COFA2232

Koori and Associated Cultures

Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

'Koori' rather than 'Aboriginal' is the term used by indigenous people to emphasise their distinct identity. It is a generic term used long ago by the peoples of the central coast of what is now New South Wales. It has been widely adopted by the people of south eastern Australia. In other parts of Australia other terms are used.

Today we are witnessing transformations of Koori and other associated cultures. They have strong roots in tradition but they have adapted, and continue to adapt, to changing conditions and external influences. COFA3831Spatial Constructions Drawing Workshop

This subject is designed to consolidate and extend previous drawing experience. Students will be engaged in practical representation of form/space relationships within interior and exterior spatial contexts. Specific studies may be made from architecture, furniture, the street, land and natural forms. Particular reference will be made to human scale and location in each spatial context.

COFA3832Life Drawing Workshop

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP10

This subject will provide the opportunity for students at all levels of drawing experience to explore the drawing of the human figure. Students will develop an understanding of the structure and form of the human body. A range of approaches will be covered that will encourage students to understand relationships of contour, form, mass, volume, line, movement, rhythm and gesture. This subject will provide an introduction to anatomy. Emphasis will be placed on direct observations and their interpretation in graphic media.

COFA3833Drawing Workshop

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP10

This subject is designed to enable students to explore a range of visual images and ideas. The course will deal with practical and theoretical issues of drawing. Through interpretation and translation of two and three dimensions the student will examine space, form and structure. Students will also be encouraged to develop a personal graphic language.

COFA3834Experimentation in Mixed Media Workshop

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP10

This subject will facilitate experimentation across disciplines. Students will be encouraged to investigate the physical and aesthetic possibilities and limitations of a range of media and materials. Attention will also be given to developing such practical skills and methodologies as may be required by students' own workshop projects.

COFA3835Composition and Design Workshop

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP10

This subject will introduce students to the theory and application of two dimensional composition and design. It will examine terminology, proportion and format, elements and principles of design and colour theory. It will investigate the application of theories of composition, colour interaction and visual measurement

COFA3836Colour Workshop

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP10

This subject will investigate colour across numerous disciplines. Students will be introduced to colour in relation to pigment, light and computing.

COFA3837Sound Studio: Advanced Workshop

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP10

Through consultation with the lecturer each student will develop projects based upon the utilisation of the audio studio. This may be a soundtrack for a film, video, performance or computer based work or a recorded sound work. This subject, if taken in conjunction with Time Based Art 3, will facilitate the completion of advanced film and video projects within that unit.

COFA 3838Writing / Text Workshop

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP10

This subject is designed for students to develop their skills in writing/text for various media including writing/text for film, video, audio work, performance, visual text for photography or painting as well as multi-media computing. It is envisaged that students will be writing with the notion of producing a work based on the writing/text developed in this course. Students are set a number of writing exercises covering character, point of view, visual aspects, poetic and non verbal aspects of storytelling, and genre as well as non-narrative and experimental forms.

COFA3839Animation Workshop

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP10

The Animation Workshop explores an overview of various animation techniques in both traditional film and computer graphic forms as well as ways of combining these various techniques. The course encourages experimentation on the part of the student. Such techniques as pixilation, cell animation, smudge animation, computer graphic manipulation of the image, computer animation, cut out techniques, in camera techniques, concepts of the frame, and landscape animation are explored.

COFA3840Advanced Multi-media Computing Workshop

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP10

This advanced workshop explores a set of interrelated computer programs. Notions of linear sequence and interactive structures in the production of artworks, are both explored. Individual elements of sound, image and text are generated using these programs with the knowledge that these elements could become frames/fragments of time based works. MacroMedia Director and Hypercard function as sites for bringing these elements of sound, image and text into time based linear or interactive structures.

Honours

BFA Honours is a course of higher level study available to BFA students who wish to undertake research in Fine Arts, extending into a fourth honours year.

BFA students, in consultation with lecturers, may apply for entry to the course from the end of Session 4. A prerequisite is normally the attaining of Distinction (DN) in at least two of three studio core subjects in both Sessions 3 and 4 with no previous failures.

Honours students are expected to perform at a superior level, achieving an average of Distinction (DN) in studio subjects in their chosen area in Sessions 5 and 6. Concurrently students would prepare a Preliminary paper researching a topic related to their studio practice each session.

In their fourth Honours year students undertake a supervised research program in their area of Fine Arts specialisation. The body of work undertaken would be presented and assessed, in exhibition form, accompanied by the presentation of a research paper relating to the student's studio practice and interests. Students would undertake the Graduate Lecture program during the year.

The course is full-time.

COFA3801Research Methods (Honours)

F HPW 2 CP20

Students will undertake one or two research projects, under the supervision of a lecturer. Attendance at a weekly, 2 hour research methods seminar will assist students to develop the skills for researching and presenting the research paper(s), and provide the opportunity for them to present findings and discuss difficulties.

COFA1026 and 1027 or COFA1126 and 1127Preliminary Papers 1 and 2

S5 and S6 CP10

A Preliminary Paper is an essay documenting a topic or topics relating to the concerns of the student's studio practice, in a minimum of 2,000 words. Topic(s) to be developed in consultation with lecturers.

COFA1036, COFA1037, COFA1038, COFA1039Honours Practice 1 – 4

S1 and S2 HPW3 CP15

These subjects extend knowledge and awareness of concepts and skills relevant to the student's area of specialisation. Through the study of appropriate practices students will develop an enhanced capacity for self criticism and personal expression within their specialised areas.

COFA1030 or COFA1130Research Paper (Honours)

F CP40

A paper of approximately 5,000 words researching a selected subject, or subjects, related to the student's studio practice and interests. Subject to approval, the work undertaken will be initiated by the student.

COFA8491Graduate Lecture

S1 CP12

The graduate lecture introduces students to a range of ideas, attitudes and philosophies by exposing them to the views of a variety of distinguished artists, critics and art administrators, often from overseas.

Assessment is based on attendance, participation and the satisfying of project requirements.

Project Requirements for the Graduate Lecture

- written assignment 1,000-1,500 words based on published list of assignment topics, presentable at any time during session, or
- participation in graduate lecture forum.

COFA8492Graduate Lecture

Students who fail an Introductory Study in Session 1 will progress to Session 2 in the following manner:

- Where a core subject is offered in only one session students who fail will be required to repeat that subject in the first available session.
- Students may take additional elective subjects in the following session to maintain Credit Points but will not be permitted to enrol in a major strand where the student has outstanding/failed pre-requisites.

Progression Rules

Where a student wishes to change their major study at the end of Session 2 approval will be given provided that:

- The student would have otherwise been eligible under the criteria set for the allocation of students to major disciplines.

(b) There are places available in the discipline area nominated.

(c) The student has satisfactorily completed a studio elective subject in the discipline area of the new choice, at distinction level or above.

Bachelor of Art Education

BArtEd

The Course

The Bachelor of Art Education is a four-year full-time degree course designed to meet the community's need for art and design educators in secondary schools and related institutions.

The course incorporates flexibility in its structure in order that students may develop their individual potential as future art educators in a variety of roles, since secondary art teachers are required to fulfil many and varied responsibilities. They may function essentially as art critics and historians, practical art producers, art education specialists or they may operate within the school situation as generalists whose interests cover the visual arts, crafts and design as a whole. The opportunity exists within the course for students to focus on any of these roles.

The course also provides for students who wish to be practising art educators outside the high school area.

It is possible to complete the Bachelor of Art Education with honours.

Students may apply for entry into the honours program at the beginning of session 5, though later year entry can be made under special circumstances. Students must have a fail free record and a distinction average in Core Studies in Art Education in sessions 3, 4, 5 and 6.

The honours program consists of additional coursework in sessions 6, 7 and 8, however students are exempt from the following: Core Options in Education in sessions 5 and 8; studio and workshop electives.

Students are required to complete COFA4015 or COFA4017 in session 5 of their course.

Subjects

Core Studies

COFA4001

Child Growth and Development S3 HPW2 CP10

The aim of the subject is to extend the student's understanding of children thus enabling wider decisions to be taken in respect of teaching and learning in the Primary School, particularly in the area of Art Education.

Theories of development, the determinants of development and approaches to studying development will be introduced. Physical, motor, cognitive, language, personal, social and moral development from birth to twelve years will be studied, including common patterns of development and the range of variations in development.

COFA4002

Adolescent Growth and Development S4 HPW2 CP10

This subject fosters the prospective teacher's awareness of developmental processes and its relevance to education. It encourages a developmental perspective for the observation and understanding of secondary school pupils. Opportunity is given to exercise the skills of observation and reflection and to relate these to classroom practices and to current theoretical constructions about adolescence.

Aspects of adolescent development studies include biological, personality, social cognitive and moral. The ideas of theorists such as Erikson, Piaget, Kohlberg and Bandura are examined at relevant points in the subject.

COFA4004

Foundations of Art Education S1 HPW2 CP10

This introductory subject in art education provides students with the opportunity to examine basic concepts and issues in art educational theory and practice.

The subject uses a modular structure to consider introductory concepts, performances and values of art education through an examination of the contributing disciplines of philosophy, sociology and psychology as they affect education and art education both in international and Australian contexts. Students will be introduced to a range of theorists including Bruner, Broudy, Dewey, Skinner, Neill and Smith and will examine material which is fundamental to the structure of the field of art education together with more speculative contributions including work by Wolpe, Grundy, Apple and Connell.

COFA4005

Teacher Development 1 S3 HPW3 CP10

This subject focuses on the planning, teaching and evaluation of school-based teaching/learning episodes. It provides a beginner's model for teaching practice and partly through micro teaching sessions, develops students' competences in basic skills for teaching. Some correlation is made with the subject, Child Growth and Development and Foundations of Art Education.

The subject is an overview of the teaching/learning process. Participants will plan objectives, consider resources and select learning experiences. They will also consider teaching strategies and evaluation of the teaching/learning situation.

COFA4010

Curriculum Studies in Art Education 1 S2 HPW3 CP10

This subject introduces students to traditional and contemporary concepts of and practices in curriculum. Using the four components of teacher, student, subject and setting as a framework students will develop art education curriculum proposals.

Through a combination of lectures, seminars and workshops the subject will look at factors that shape and influence secondary school curriculum.

COFA4011

Curriculum Studies in Art Education 2 S1 or S2 HPW3 CP10

Prerequisite: Curriculum Studies in Art Education 1

The aim of this subject is to provide students with opportunities to examine theories of curriculum evaluation, curriculum orientations, knowledge and the curriculum, curriculum discourse, forms of organisation and contemporary issues in art educational curriculum theory and practice.

The subject will include planning visual arts learning activities for the secondary school and the organisation of space, time, instructional materials and personnel to facilitate learning in the visual arts.

COFA4013

Visual Arts Workshop 1 S1 HPW3 CP10

This subject aims to provide students with frameworks and methods for the interpretation of artistic performances appropriate to various educational settings.

Through a series of lectures, workshops and individual research projects, students will gain skills and understandings of the theoretical, performative and valuable knowing of art practice.

COFA4015

The Individual and Society – The Sociology of Education S5 HPW2 CP10

This course provides an introduction to and overview of the interaction between society and the individual and between the socialising groups which shape behaviour. Current issues and problems will provide a focus for analysis and projecting strategies for effective pupil learning.

Participation in this course should develop attitudes and skills, so that the student is able: to appraise and appreciate significant developments and theoretical contributions in the area of social research; to identify and analyse the nature of group processes operating in classrooms and society; to identify probable individual reactions to a wide range of social situations; to analyse the school as a social system in interaction with other social systems in the community; to employ knowledge of social processes for greater teacher effectiveness.

COFA4017

Philosophical Issues in Education S8 HPW2 CP10

The aim of this subject is to introduce students to contemporary philosophical theories applied to the field of education. Using the critical theories of society put forward by Jurgen Habermas students will analyse knowledge and human interests in order to critically understand a range of significant educational issues in terms of their technical, practical and emancipatory consequences.

COFA4019

Special Education S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

This subject aims to extend student's knowledge and experience of atypical children and especially their problems in the secondary school situation. It attempts to develop in students supportive attitudes towards handicapped children.

Subject content introduces students to the psychology and special educational needs of mildly and moderately mentally handicapped children, of children with learning disabilities, and of children with some categories of physical and emotional handicap. Students explore some Special Education teaching methods and materials and the contribution of Art Education in this field.

COFA4027

Theories and Practices of Art History in Education S1 or S2 HPW4 CP10

This subject aims to present students with a range of theories of art history and develop student ability to explore and apply art historical methodologies to the educational conditions of setting, student and curriculum.

Students will consider the educational significance of concepts of the historical event, the interpretation of art works in cultural and historical contexts, and the formation of spatiotemporal frames of reference among art works.

COFA4029

Theory of Aesthetics in Art Education S2 HPW3 CP10

Prerequisite: Theories and Practices of Art History in Education

This subject aims to provide students with opportunities to examine aesthetics and art theory as these relate to the teaching of art, to increase their critical awareness, to become more aware of their own philosophy of art education and the implications of this for their teaching.

Through a combination of lectures and seminars the subject will include the historic ideas and aims of aesthetic education. Curriculum design and validation in aesthetic education will be an important component.

COFA4047

Educational Psychology 1 S5 HPW2 CP10

An introduction to the nature and objectives of educational psychology from a cognitive, social and ecological perspective. The course will include: the nature of learning, the processes involved in social cognition, the processes involved in motivation, the theories re: group processes in a school.

COFA4048

Educational Psychology 2 S6 HPW2 CP10

Prerequisite: Educational Psychology I

This course involves the application of the theory covered in Educational Psychology I to a classroom setting. It involves an analysis of the match between the teacher, the material and the student, the problems of different learning styles, the management of classrooms, principles of discipline and those aspects of planning and implementing a program in a positive educational environment.

COFA4049

Teacher Development 2 S4 HPW3 CP10

Prerequisite: Teacher Development 1

This subject aims to extend students' competence in the planning, teaching and evaluating of experiences in the visual arts for small groups of school pupils. Correlation will be made with the subject, Adolescent Growth and Development

COFA4050

Teacher Development 3 S5 HPW3 CP10

Prerequisite: Teacher Development 2

This subject requires students to integrate previous in-school experiences and course work as a basis for devising appropriate tactics for the teaching of visual arts in the secondary school. Specific instructional tasks and learning experiences will be introduced and practiced, using small group and large group formats. Students will be required to systematically plan a series of in-school learning tasks that require learners to undertake inquiry-training skills, discovery-oriented skills and problem-solving tasks. The subject also aims to help students develop their capacity for self-analysis of their teaching performance.

The subject includes a recapitulation of goals/rationale of Art Education as a basis for planning effective teaching/learning experiences. Organising classroom and resources for small and large groups is practiced as is the planning of evaluation criteria and procedures.

Core Options

COFA4012

Curriculum Studies in Art Education 3 S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

Prerequisite: Curriculum Studies in Art Education 1 and 2

COFA4014

Visual Arts Workshop 2

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

Prerequisite: Visual Arts Workshop 1

This subject aims to further student's critical and reflective skills and understandings of the technical and theoretical nature of art practice.

Through naturalistic research methods, students will examine primary sources as characterising aspects of artists in their settings.

COFA4024

Histories of Australian Education

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

This subject aims to develop student understanding of the social and historical forces which have shaped traditions and policy in schooling and education in Australia.

Social concepts including reproduction theory, structuration and cultural capital will be used with more orthodox historical tools to analyse, critique and revise historical explanations of educational developments. The impact of intellectual modes and paradigms originating beyond the educational arena will also be explored. Some art educational trends will be identified and explained in terms of these broader intellectual and historical origins.

COFA4025

Theories of Creativity and Art Education

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

Through an examination of theoretical approaches to problem solving and creativity, as well as courses developed to foster these abilities, this subject aims to enable students to recognise and foster these abilities in children.

Topic studies include cognitive style and individual differences, creativity and intelligence, convergent and divergent thinking, lateral thinking, productive thinking and problem solving, and trends in education of the talented.

COFA4028

Seminar in Art Education

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

The aim of this subject is to provide a general introduction to research in art education.

Through involvement in this subject students will become familiar with research bearing on major areas of interest in art education.

COFA4032

Art Education and the Primary School

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

This subject is designed to expand the student's knowledge of the art of the primary school child and to examine approaches to teaching art at that level. Students will examine curricula already designed for use at the primary levels and will construct programs suitable for implementation in specific environments.

Through lecture and discussion groups, the subject will renew the theories of development linked with children's artistic development, consider the place of art education in the primary school curriculum and design and evaluate appropriate learning experiences.

COFA4033

The Multicultural Classroom

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

The main aims of this subject are to increase students' knowledge and awareness of the cultural diversity of Australian society, develop their sensitivity to the needs of minority groups and explore the implications of multi culturalism for policies and practices as they are represented through the lens of art and art education. Through lectures and discussion groups, the subject will consider Australia's history of multi-culturalism as it has been represented through art education and look at the issues/problems arising for the visual arts from multi-cultural education.

COFA4035

Art as Therapy 1

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

This subject has been organised for Art Education students who wish to be involved in helping people of all ages to improve the quality of their lives by giving them opportunities to develop their non-verbal expression and communication.

Through lecture and workshop activities the subject will look at the role of therapy and the competencies required before an art educator can act as a therapist.

COFA4037

Art Education and the Environment

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

This subject introduces students to concepts and issues involved in environmental design education and emphasises the reciprocal transaction that exists between people and their art, culture and environment. Art education has been a key agency for the dissemination and discussion of core urban and ecological values, particularly as they effect the conservation of the aesthetic character of the built and natural environment. Through lecture and discussion, the subject will consider the rationales for environmental design education, personal space, communal space and the cultural influences on environmental design.

COFA4039

Art Education and Aboriginal Studies

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

This subject is designed to foster student's insight into the social and political background that has affected, and continues to affect, the educational opportunities of Aboriginal people in contemporary Australia. Through lectures, discussions, seminars and visits by Aboriginal guest speakers, this subject will examine the following topics: Aboriginal Identity, Kinship, Law, Religious and Educational Systems and Land Rights; it will also explore European ethnocentricity, prejudice, stereotyping and racism. All topics will be illustrated by the works of both Aboriginal and non Aboriginal artists.

COFA4040

Independent Study in Art Education

S1 or S2 HPW4 CP10

Prerequisite: Seminar in Art Education

This subject aims to provide senior students with the opportunity to explore an area of art education which is of particular interest. Through interaction with a member of the staff of the School of Art Education, students will undertake a study in some aspect of art education which is not encountered in other subjects offered.

Students are expected to demonstrate initiative and organisation skills in independently pursuing the research process and reaching educational objectives.

COFA4045

Community Arts and Education

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

This subject aims to develop in students an understanding of the factors which condition community involvement in the visual arts, an appreciation of the values underlying the vocational pursuit of art outside the school system and the ability to identify evaluative criteria applicable to community based curricula in the visual arts.

COFA4046

The Art Museum and Art Education

S2 HPW2 CP10

This subject aims to foster an awareness in students of the ideology and philosophies of art museums and an understanding of the broad educational functions of the museum including the vernacular appreciation of art and the development of a lifelong approach to learning. Students will have the opportunity to observe the educational functions of the art museum within a diversity of contexts and systematically investigate the plurality of roles which the museum performs within our society.

COFA4049

Dilemmas of Praxis: the State, the School and the Educator

General Education

S2 HPW2 CP10

Prerequisite: Teaching Internship (ETP)

This subject utilises the student's internship experiences as a platform to explore the ethical, political and pedagogical dilemmas entailed in the School. Students will utilise a range of contemporary perspectives to explore philosophical, sociological and political dilemmas and conflicts in the context of education. Perspectives include Althusser's ideological state apparatuses: Giddens' Structuration; Habermas' communicative action and Foucault's notion of discourse and difference.

COFA4054

Politics, Identity and Art Education

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP10

This subject aims to provide students with the opportunity to examine theoretical antecedents and perspectives in cultural studies including the theories of Adorno, Bourdieu, Geertz, Morris, Said, Spivak and Williams and understand how theory within art education influences civic values and cultural policy within government. The impact of cultural theory upon education and understanding within the arts will be examined as traditions, habits, practices, values and expectations from economic, and political viewpoints. Students will become familiar with the way in which concepts such as identity, subjectivity, marginality, status, race, gender and post colonialism mediate the relationship between the agenda, of popular perception, governmental priorities and the artworld through art education.

COFA4052

Theoretical Frameworks in Art Education

S1 HPW3 CP10

This subject aims to introduce students to the theoretical frameworks which form the basis for the conception of visual arts education as a distinctive field. Theoretical frameworks in art education will be explained as a largely discontinuous collection of histories. These histories are united by ruling paradigms many originating outside of the field in the human sciences, and in the practices of the visual arts. Examples include, psychoanalytical approaches to creativity, anthropological and socio-cultural studies, and cognitive theories.

COFA4053Curriculum and Art Education
S2 HPW3 CP10

This subject will provide students with modernist and post modernist theoretical frameworks of curriculum evaluation and critique. Particular reference will be made to the critical methodologies of Habermas and the genealogical archeology of Foucault as appropriate to an interpretation of the visual arts in education.

COFA4055Honours Research Project in Art Education Studies
S2 CP30

This subject enables students to prepare and complete an Art Education research project in a chosen area of specialisation. Content includes a review of major research paradigms including: historical, descriptive, experimental and philosophical methodologies. Students will complete a research project submitting a report which identifies an issue or problem of art educational significance and demonstrates understanding and appropriate application of selected methodologies to the investigation of the chosen problem, and is presented in the form of a publishable paper of 5500-7500 words in length.

Course Rules

These rules should be read in conjunction with the Academic Rules of the University as published in the University Calendar.

Admission

All other applicants will be required to submit a portfolio of their recent work in the visual arts by a date and in a form specified by the College. The offer of places in the course will be made in order of merit following assessment of the portfolio, Higher School Certificate Tertiary Entrance Ranking and/or its equivalents.

Assessment
Time Limit

A full-time student must complete the prescribed course for the award of the Bachelor of Art Education within a maximum of sixteen sessions from the date of initial enrolment.

Student Progress

Student progress will be reported at the end of each session.

Attendance

Except where leave is granted:

- students must attend all classes of subjects for which they are registered; and
- where absences in excess of 3 classes occur, students may be given a fail grade (FL).

Selection of Major Studies in Core Subjects in Visual Arts

Following the completion of Introductory Studies in Session 1, placement of students in core study majors will be based on the Aggregate of Session 1 subjects and student preferences.

Students will be allocated to the highest preference that their Aggregate determines.

Failures

Students who fail a subject would repeat that subject or its equivalent.

Students who fail an Introductory Study in Session 1 will progress to Session 2 in the following manner:

- Where a core subject is offered in only one session students who fail will be required repeat that subject in the first available session.
- Students may take additional elective subjects in the following session to maintain Credit Points but will not be permitted to enrol in a major strand where the student has outstanding/failed pre-requisites.

Progression Rules

Where a student wishes to change their major study at the end of session two approval will be given provided that:

- The student would have otherwise been eligible under the criteria set for the allocation of students to major disciplines.
- There are places available in the discipline area nominated.
- The students has satisfactorily completed a studio elective subject in the discipline area of the new choice, at distinction level or above.
- Where there are more applications for change than places in a given major the student's result in their studio elective will be used to establish a priority list.

The Course

The Bachelor of Art Theory offers an intensive study of the visual arts and culture. The degree program encourages students to take full advantage of its location within one of Australia's largest art and design schools and a leading university. The focus of the degree is on the nexus between the study of art, art practice and the 'arts and cultural industries'. Students gain a broad and integrated education in art history and theory and an introduction to the arts professions, such as curatorship, public programmes, arts policy formation and implementation, arts administration, and art criticism and writing.

Graduates from the Bachelor of Art Theory will have the ability to make informed critical judgements about various forms of visual culture, with a particular emphasis on understanding the visual arts and historical-theoretical interpretation. Graduates will have benefited from the opportunity to combine their core theoretical and historical studies with studio-based subjects in art, craft and design and to draw on a wide range of electives offered within the University. They will have gained an understanding of, and experience in, the 'arts industry', ranging from public and commercial galleries and art museums, to journals and government funding bodies.

There are three components to the Bachelor of Art Theory:

Historical and Theoretical Studies are core subjects in which students gain an understanding of the major methodological tools and concerns in Art History. These subjects provide a framework for other studies in the degree.

Professional Contexts are core subjects which explore the institutional contexts in which art is exhibited, catalogued, collected, interpreted, evaluated and promoted. Although careers within the arts-related professions frequently require further study, these subjects provide 'hands-on' experience in writing and publishing, curating, and the avenues for funding, culminating in the Industry Placement.

Electives allow students to tailor their studies to their specific interests and career aspirations. While some students will seek to focus and deepen their studies, other will choose electives across a broad range of art and design subjects and subjects offered by the School of Art History and Theory and other schools and faculties of the University. General Education subjects contribute to the broad educational objectives of the degree.

Course Structure

Core Subjects

The Bachelor of Art Theory degree is constructed around an integrated strand of Core Subjects. The Core Subjects provide intensive study in art histories, theories and philosophies as well as the institutional contexts in which art is exhibited, catalogued, published and promoted. Students enrol in three Core subjects each Session, totalling 18 subjects. The sequence of Core Subjects taken is subject to approval by the School.

Prerequisites

One or both of COFA2001 Art History and Theory 1: Mapping the Modern and/or COFA2002 Art History and Theory 2: Mapping the Postmodern and one or both of COFA6005 Theories of the Image and/or COFA6010 Theories of Art History and Culture are prerequisites for all other core subjects.

Elective subjects

Electives can be chosen from Art History/Theory electives (see subject descriptions from page 18 of this Handbook); Studio electives (see subject descriptions from page 23 of this handbook); and approved electives offered by the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences. Where Studio subjects are chosen, students must complete a strand comprising no less than three electives in a particular subject. Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences subjects may be taken as electives, subject to prerequisite requirements, or as a major sequence, defined as an approved progression of six subjects in a school or program.

Graduating Students' Exhibition

Students are permitted to exhibit in the Graduating Students' Exhibition with a copy of final year Research Papers submitted for display in the Library during the period of the Exhibition.

Honours Entry

Application for entry to the BArtTh honours program is normally made in Session 6. The Honours program consists of a 4th year which is comprised of two Honours Seminars and a Thesis. Students must achieve no less than an average of 70% in Core subjects in Sessions 4, 5 and 6.

Applicants who have completed an appropriate degree within the previous ten years at the College of Fine Arts or another institution, and satisfied all prerequisites, may apply to be admitted to the 4th Honours year of the Bachelor of Art Theory.

Core Studies: Historical and Theoretical Studies

COFA2001

Art History and Theory 1: Mapping the Modern

Staff Contact: Alan Krell

S1 or S2 HPW4 CP10

This subject examines the production of art, art theory and art's meanings within changing social, political and cultural contexts. Commencing with the nineteenth-century and concluding with the outbreak of World War Two, Mapping the Modern looks at different modes of visual representation ranging from Realism, Symbolism and Expressionism to early twentieth-century avant-gardes such as Futurism, Dada and Surrealism. These are considered against the backdrop of industrialisation, technological transformations, colonisation and international conflicts.

COFA2002

Art History and Theory 2: Mapping the Postmodern

Staff Contact: Alan Krell

S1 or S2 HPW4 CP10

Commencing with the art of totalitarian regimes, and tracing the transformations in art practice and theory from the 1940s to the present, Mapping the Postmodern examines major forms of cultural production in relation to changing social, political and economic patterns. Issues relating to Formalism, Pop, image and text, the 'de-materialisation' of art, and performance are addressed, as well as Feminist theories and practice, post-colonial culture, international exhibitions and the new technologies.

COFA6005

Theories of the Image

Staff Contact: Graham Forsyth

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

An introduction to ways of understanding and evaluating the making, reception and theoretical understandings of images in our culture. Different cultures and historical periods have treated images in radically different ways with different ways of understanding the way images relate to their producer(s), viewer(s) and to the world. There is also a philosophical concern with the nature of the image, how it is able to have meaning, to represent at all. How are we able to read images? Is it a natural process or culturally determined? These issues will be addressed by critically examining the different ways of understanding the artistic image in Western and Non-western arts, and in crucial developments in Western art history (including Renaissance perspective, the invention of photography; photo-mechanical reproduction; Modernism and abstraction, and feminist critiques).

COFA6010Theories of Art History and CultureStaff Contact: Graham Forsyth*

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

Introduces art history and cultural analysis as forms of narrative, which aim to explain and integrate cultural objects into historical or other order. Draws upon and critically assesses the key methodologies [such as connoisseurship, periodisation, formalism, iconography, historicism and historical materialism, social history, psychoanalysis, semiotics, high culture/popular culture, ethnocentrism, and feminism]. These methodologies will be examined by reference to such historians as Wölfflin, Panofsky, Gombrich, Baxandall, Fry, Antal, Clark, and Pollock.

COFA6015Grand Narratives of Western ArtStaff Contact: Fay Brauer*

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

To tell progressive stories of art, 'grand narratives' have been formed in Western histories of art which have entailed ordering a selection of historical material into Eurocentric and ethnocentric evolutions. This subject is constructed to cut across wide historical fields and their periodisations to critically examine how these 'grand narratives' have been formed in western art and its histories. It sets-out to focus upon the nature of historical material constituted as evidence for such 'grand narratives' as 'classicism' from Ancient Greece to Nazi Germany, mimesis in terms of 'illusionism' involving the Renaissance control of space and direction of the gaze. It will also explore the geopolitical nature of representing the environment through such genres as 'landscape' and 'cityscape', formations of gender, sexuality and the body through images of 'the nude', and notions of race as insinuated through such stylistic classifications as 'orientalism' and 'primitivism', and their connections with Western connotations of exoticism as eroticism.

COFA6016Approaches to Australian ArtStaff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelsohn*

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject introduces some of the preoccupations of Australian art in the years since colonisation. Issues to be discussed include: the notion of the artist as a recorder in the 19th century and a tourist in the 20th; the search for a "Great" Australian artist; national identity and art; links between art and commerce; the idea of "modern" in an Australian context; and attempts to place Australian art in an international context.

COFA6030Art and Cultural DifferenceStaff Contact: Diane Losche*

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

The conceptualisation of difference, diversity and multiplicity, both within and across cultural boundaries, has occupied a central position in the historical trajectory of Art, particularly since the end of World War II and the advent of a variety of neo and postcolonialisms. Topics covered include the relationship of theories of ethnicity, gender, race, class, culture, knowledge and power to the complex history and practices of art. These will be addressed by critically examining Adorno, Benjamin, Freud, Irigaray and Marx, and theorists and artists of colonial struggle such as Kahlo, Rivera, Sartre and Fanon. The implications for art of such contemporary issues as multiculturalism will also be included.

COFA6035Art and the Culture of 'Everyday Life'Staff Contact: Dr Jill Bennett*

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject examines the major structures and ways of thinking which have both constituted and transformed the practices of art, and criticism and evaluation of art in an era characterised by the pervasiveness of mass media and the aestheticization of everyday life. The subject explores the forms and significance of popular culture in the 20th century, focussing on such phenomena as consumerism, mass media, TV and advertising, subcultures, the city and the suburb. The interdisciplinary development of cultural studies provides tools for reading artistic strategies in the light of television, film, computer imaging, the popular press and advertising. The work of theorists such as Jean Baudrillard, Michel de Certeau and Meaghan Morris is applied to these areas and critically examined.

COFA6036Theories of Meaning / Meaning of TheoryStaff Contact: Dr David McNeill*

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject will re-examine a number of theoretical approaches to the understanding of images and objects that have been addressed during the undergraduate course. These approaches will be applied to a range of artworks produced in Australia and internationally over the last decade or so. It will offer an overview of many of the contemporary developments, themes and issues that have concerned artists in the period up to and beyond postmodernism.

Issues to be considered include: how objects and images come to have meaning, the ways in which artworks differ from other objects, the relations between language and visual images, the ways images and objects can be seen and the sort of viewer(s) they imply, the different forms of perceptual 'address' that we bring to artworks, including visual, tactile and kinaesthetic, and the significance of art images and objects in relation to the politics of information dissemination, gender, postcolonialism, class and ethnicity.

Core Studies: Professional ContextsCOFA6105*Audiences for ArtStaff Contact: Alan Krell*

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP15

The subject exposes students to the different types of contemporary art exhibited locally – in public galleries, dealer galleries, contemporary art spaces, artist run initiatives, community centres and 'non-art' spaces such as shopping malls. Designed to reflect the diversity both of art and the institutions through which it is viewed, this subject is structured around an examination of works 'in situ'. Students are encouraged to engage with work in relation to specific contexts, to consider issues of taste and value and how these are mediated by place and modes of display.

COFA6110

The Production of Art

Staff Contact: Alan Krell

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP15

The emphasis in this subject is on a 'behind the scenes' exposition of art. It looks critically at the processes by which visual art is made available to viewing publics. These processes take into account a range of concerns (practical, strategic, ideological) that vary widely between institutions. Students are introduced to various professional art practices, through the processes of curating, managing, catalogue writing and production, exhibition display and handling of works. The infrastructure of the 'art industry', including the administration of State Museums and other art organisations, such as funding bodies, are presented as a subject for practical purposes, as well as critical consideration.

COFA6115

Genres of Art Writing

Staff Contact: Joanna Mendelsohn

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP15

This subject examines different genres of writing on the visual arts, with an emphasis on contemporary practices. Newspaper reviews, journal criticism, scholarly catalogue essays, 'in house' catalogue notes, 'coffee table' art books and collaborative works between artists and writers are studied in terms of their connections to other genres of writing (for example 'journalese', fictional narrative, descriptive prose). The subject looks at these writings within specific cultural fields and their assumed sets of values. It also demonstrates how such categories play an active role in the shaping and production of meanings in art. Students also become participants in the writing, editing and design of the School of Art Theory's magazine, Artwrite.

COFA6120

Methods of Research and Writing on Art

Staff Contact: Joanna Mendelsohn

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP15

This subject is primarily concerned with the teaching of skills necessary to conduct specific research projects. The focus is on methods of researching primary material as well as locating archival documentation, in order to evaluate and effectively utilise different forms of visual and theoretical 'evidence' for research projects. Topics include field work methods, such as oral history, together with knowledge of indexing procedures, statistical analysis and the utilisation of computer resources, as well as critical methodologies for appraising research material. The subject also includes topics to address the logical construction of 'a valid argument', the rhetorical promises of different genres of writing and the delineation of ideas.

COFA6046

Contexts, Professions and Practices

Staff Contact: Professor Sue Rowley

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject orients students towards professional practice in arts administration, curatorship, writing and other arts-related professions. Students will critically consider the 'professionalisation' of the arts, and the notion of the arts and cultural 'industries'. They will investigate the nature of employment and practice, drawing on theoretical and case study approaches. They will examine the idea of professional skills, and have the opportunity to practise some skills- and knowledge-based tasks, such as developing exhibition and funding proposals, preparing budgets and reports, developing marketing and promotion strategies, preparing education and/or public programs, and seeking sponsorships. The aims of the subject are to prepare students for the Industry Placement, to help clarify career goals, to give students an understanding of professional practice, and to ensure that they develop the confidence in their preparation for working in the arts.

COFA6125

Industry Placement

Staff Contact: Alan Krell

S1 or S2 HPW2 CP20

This subject is designed to give students 'hands-on' experience in a particular area of professional practice. In consultation with the subject co-ordinator, students are placed into an institutional framework for a specified period of time. This could be a commercial gallery, museum, artist run initiative, artist's studio or arts funding body. The student shall carry out one project while at the institution, and prepare a report at the end of the session on the placement.

COFA6140

Specialist Studies

Staff Contact: David McNeill

S1 HPW3 CP30

Drawing upon Methodologies and Philosophies of Art History, this subject allows for intensive investigation of a period, issue or theme selected to reflect the different specialist interests of staff after consultation with potential students. Topics chosen will be used to highlight theoretical and historical positions previously raised in the course. Topics that might be offered include:

- Colonialism and Nationalism in Australian Art and Culture
- Koori and Associated Cultures
- Art and Culture of the Pacific: Image, Myth and History
- Art and Politics in France from 1789 to the Second Empire
- Theories of Cultural Crisis
- Formations of Modernism across Continents: Paris-Paris/ Paris-Sydney.

COFA6141ThesisStaff Contact: David McNeill*

CP55

A research thesis of 15,000 words on an approved topic. Students are expected to consult with the Head of School in February about their topics and arrange supervision with a member of staff no later than mid-March, when work on the thesis should commence. Throughout the year students are expected to work closely with their supervisors and attend occasional thesis workshops.

COFA6142Methodologies and Philosophies of Art HistoryStaff Contact: David McNeill*

S1 HPW3 CP25

This subject deals with problems of art historical methodology. It critically examines the different ways of conceiving the domain, functions and definitions of art history to ultimately provide a diversity of tools for the construction of an Honours Thesis.

Bachelor of Design

BDes

The Course

The Bachelor of Design is a 4 year degree with the opportunity to undertake honours study.

This course will provide an education to students who wish to enter a range of different areas of the design profession, for example: design studios, advertising agencies, illustration, publications, interiors, theatre, exhibitions, festivals, display fittings and furnishings, decorative and applied design, film, television production and post-production.

In Year 1 students will be involved in a comprehensive and intensive range of 2D, 3D and 4D (or time based) experiences as well as the acquisition of historical, theoretical and technological skills and understandings. These include studying human individuals, society, the environment, and the application of computer skills to design.

In Years 2 and 3 students will extend their work on projects integrating the following: design in graphics/media, applied/object design and the design of environments. Historical, theoretical and technological contexts will be applied.

In Year 4 students' projects will integrate design studies and a period of work experience into a graduation project/exhibition.

This course recognises the College of Fine Arts' particular strengths, resources and requirements to provide an undergraduate course which places emphasis on an integrated approach rather than on narrow vocational specialisations. These strengths are its technology and applied arts base and its relationship with industry, its subjects in visual arts, art education and art theory, and the ability to offer design from a creative and flexible base.

Subjects

General Education

Students are required as part of their studies, to complete 112 hours of study in General Education subjects or their equivalent.

Core Subjects

COFA5110

Design Studio Projects: Materials, Equipment and Processes

F HPW12 CP60

The aim of this subject is to introduce and demonstrate the multi-disciplinary and integrated nature of the design process. Students will be involved in a variety of projects which address the acquisition of basic design concepts and the language, and the materials, techniques and processes by which they are expressed. These projects will initially concentrate on mark-making and its potential as an element in 2D design. Following the development of these understandings, subsequent projects will incorporate 3D forms, spatial and temporal considerations through sequential imagery.

COFA5111

Design Seminar 1

F HPW2 CP10

Corequisite: COFA5110

In this subject students will be introduced to an analytical process whereby theoretical and philosophical understandings outlined in Contextual Studies are applied to the creative solution of a design problem. Further, students will be involved in critical analysis of solutions derived in order to develop the capacity to evaluate different design approaches.

COFA5112

History, Theory and Aesthetics of Design 1

F HPW2 CP10

The aim of this subject is to discuss and analyse work by different designers and artists to elucidate issues applicable to the aesthetics of design. The issues include:

- the idiosyncratic nature of certain designers' and artists' practices.
- basic philosophies of structures and materials as they are expressed as an element of design.
- the interrelationships of form, space, movement and time.
- simple structures, geometric forms and spaces as design elements.
- the experience of spaces and forms perceived through movement.

COFA5113

Interactive Systems Design and Responsible Management of the Environment

F HPW2 CP10

The aim of this subject is to introduce and develop understandings about patterns of human habitation. The relationship between 'nature' and society is examined in the context of pressures on resources, both past and present, for their implications for the quality of life. Students will develop moral and ethical frameworks within which to evaluate problems and define strategies for solutions.

Further, to continue investigation of notions about interrelationships of 'nature', society and the urban environment, and the need for responsibility in formulating models and strategies for the future. Socio-political processes are evaluated for their adequacy to respond to human aspirations and objectives and the design of alternatives is explored.

COFA5114

Design and Human Functioning: The Body at Work

F HPW2 CP10

The aim of this subject is to introduce students to basic concepts in psychological studies and their application in the design context. These concepts may include:

- the psychology of perception.
- theoretical approaches to the analysis of human behaviour as it relates to design.
- anatomy.
- anthropometrics, measurement of the physical and functional characteristics of the human body.
- analysis and measurement of the relationship between the human body and the design of the macro and micro environment.

COFA5115

Research Project Design 1 Drawing: Object, Life and Landscape

S1 HPW3 CP10

This subject provides students with the opportunity to participate in a fine art study or an area of research which informs and supplements their Core Subjects. Students may take the Research Project in another part of the University with the approval of their Course Advisers.

COFA5116

Research Project Design 2 Introduction to Computers

S2 HPW3 CP10

This subject will introduce students to the computer, its languages and its potential as a design tool. They will develop basic computer literacy, keyboard skills and a variety of graphic techniques and skills.

The subject will also develop understandings and skill in:

- word processing
- spreadsheet

COFA5210Design Studio: Graphics/Media 1

F HPW4 CP20

Prerequisite: COFA5110*Corequisite:* COFA5211, COFA5212 & COFA5213

The aim of this subject is to develop students' perceptual awareness through observing objects, photographing and drawing them as pattern and diagram on a flat surface. Freehand and technical drawing will be explored in the development of plan, section and elevation, together with acquiring understandings of compositional possibilities in the use of black/white, positive/negative relationships and colour theory. These understandings will be applied to graphics projects resulting in finished artwork such as is used for poster design and other advertising.

Further, students will develop an ability to identify, analyse and resolve more complex design problems as well as experience coping with various tasks and challenges simultaneously. Students will undertake projects which require them to synthesize a variety of understandings, materials and processes, extending their skills in illustration, rendering and perspective to explore the potential for graphics design. Students identify projects which arise from understandings acquired in Contextual Studies, and will experience teamwork as a means of understanding the roles of communication and organisation in the design process. 2D & 3D CAD, materials and techniques in drawing or those undertaken as individual research in the Core Options will also be applied in these projects.

CCOFA5211Design Studio: Applied 1

F HPW4 CP20

Prerequisite: COFA5110*Corequisite:* COFA5210, COFA5212 & COFA5123

The aim of this subject is to develop students' perceptual awareness through cutting, folding and joining flat materials to make the simple geometric solids. The process whereby flat flexible materials are transformed into structure is analysed for the inherent principles involved. These solids are then arranged in space and drawn freehand progressively employing tone, texture and colour to represent 3D form. The conceptual, material and sculptural understandings gained are used to develop designs in the decorative and applied arts.

Further, students will develop an awareness of compound forms. Projects will focus on various aspects of the fabricated environment, and students will construct models to examine the interrelationship of materials and fabrication techniques in their application to design. Students will undertake projects which require them to synthesize a variety of understandings, materials and processes, extending their skills in developing sculptural forms. Students identify projects which arise from understandings acquired in Contextual Studies, and will experience teamwork as a means of understanding the roles of communication and organisation in the design process. 2D & 3D CAD, materials and techniques in sculpture or those undertaken as individual research in the Core Options will also be applied in these projects.

COFA5212Design Studio: Environments 1

F HPW4 CP20

Prerequisite: COFA5110*Corequisite:* COFA5210, COFA5211 & COFA5123

The aim of this subject is to develop students' awareness of space, scale and movement. The principles of perspective drawing are introduced and investigated through freehand and mechanically constructed drawing. The ways in which horizontal and vertical planes define and articulate space are explored through scale drawings and models of simple spaces. Students analyse and record by video and series of freehand drawings their perception of movement through a sequence of spaces. Analysis of the conceptual and material understandings gained are then applied to integrating the aesthetic, spatial and functional aspects of connected volumes as for exhibition, theatrical or promotional events.

COFA5213Design Seminar 2

F HPW2 CP10

Prerequisite: COFA5111*Corequisite:* COFA5210, COFA5211 & COFA5212

In this subject students will continue to be involved in an analytical process whereby theoretical and philosophical understandings generated in contextual studies are applied to the creative solution of a design problem. Further, students will be involved in the critical analysis of the process and solutions derived in order to develop the capacity to evaluate different design approaches and solutions. Students will be expected to articulate such evaluations.

COFA5214History, Theory and Aesthetics of Design 2

F HPW2 CP10

Prerequisite: COFA5112

From general understandings gained in History, Theory and Aesthetics of Design 1, more complex notions about form, space and movement are used to develop aesthetic understandings about the constructed and 'natural' environments. Students understanding of the history of society as it relates to these is expanded to encompass considerations of the characteristics and relationships between internal and external spaces. This is undertaken through a process of tracing design issues through different periods and movements to reveal the manner in which they have been expressed.

COFA5215Design and Social Theory

F HPW2 CP10

The aim of this subject is to introduce students to theoretical areas such as sociology and to explore their application in the design context. Concepts will be presented to assist in the analysis of the behaviour of social groups and target populations and issues such as 'green design', social responsibility and the ideology of the image will be explored. Students will be actively involved in observation, analysis and speculation concerning the social factors present in all aspects of the design process.

The Bauhaus is examined as a pivotal model for the expression of these design issues, which are then traced from the mid-nineteenth century to the present. Issues of industrialisation, mass-production, standardization and of questions around high art versus popular forms will be discussed. Further, tendencies in design and aesthetics since the 1960s are investigated to reveal what have variously been termed Post Modernism, Late Modernism and High-Tech. Structure of Course

The course is structured into three subject strands:

Core Studies: 205 credit points

Contextual Studies: 130 credit points

General Education: 30 credit points

The Core Studies are designed to help students explore the relationship between ideas, materials and processes. The intention in the Foundation Studio is to assist students to develop knowledge and skill in solving fundamental artistic problems through drawing, colour theory and craft design. Since drawing is basic to all artistic activity, students will be encouraged to use drawing to assist them in developing their ideas and to help them improve their creative problem solving strategies using media. All students in Year 1 complete a common core of studies.

In Year 2 students will elect a major sequence in their specialist study from textiles, ceramics or jewellery. Specialist subjects are identified under the title Design Craft with each of the specialist studies focusing upon knowledge, skills and understanding that will assist students to prepare as professional craft artists. Only two of the three specialist areas will be offered in any one year. Prospective students should check with the School.

To assist students to gain knowledge and technical information about the science and technology of material and help them better understand the structure, workability and composition of materials, the School of Fibre Science and Technology and School of Materials Science and Engineering are contributing subjects to the course. The two schools will jointly offer within the Core Studies the subject Materials and Techniques in Design Craft 1 (Session 3, Year 2) as an introductory subject dealing with the science and technology of textiles, clay and associated materials and metal. A second subject, Materials and Techniques in Design Craft 2 (Session 4, Year 2) will allow students to elect one of either textiles, clay and associated materials or metal. Students will select the second subject that supports their specialist design craft study in textiles, ceramics or jewellery. Therefore, students majoring in textiles will enrol in the textiles strand of Materials and Techniques in Design Craft 2.

Contextual Studies provide students with fundamental and elective studies in history and theory of the craft arts, practical studies and professional development. The history and theory subjects aim to provide students with knowledge, appreciation and critical appraisal of specified historical achievements in European and non-European cultures by studying the applied arts within the social, economic and political context of those selected cultures.

The third strand, General Education Studies, are designed to meet University requirements for a General Education Program in undergraduate courses.

Honours Component

A student who has completed the second year of the full-time course with superior performance may make written application to the Head of School to enrol in the Honours subject in the third year, EXPA 4000 Project A (Honours), in addition to their normal program. A student who then achieves a high level of academic performance in the overall third year program may be admitted to the fourth year Honours program. The content of the Honours year subjects, EXPA 4001 Project B (Honours) and EXPA 4002 Research in the Applied Arts, will be planned in collaboration with the students' Project Supervisor.

Normally, students in the fourth year will be expected to complete the Honours year requirements in one academic year, terminating with the submission of a Project. The Project may be in the form of a thesis or exhibition or some combination as determined in consultation with the Project Supervisor and where appropriate, the Head of School.

Applied Arts Study Electives

Elective studies will deal in-depth with issues of a theoretical nature concerning the craft arts in historical, contemporary and future-oriented social perspectives and in the application of theory to practice. Studio-oriented electives will include a theoretical examination of the nature of practice and critical inquiry that will extend knowledge, skill and understanding. Elective studies are organised into Group A (studio-oriented studies) and Group B (theoretically-oriented studies). Students will select a total of 3 subjects from both groups of which only 2 can be selected from Group A. Elective studies will be made available in Sessions 3, 4 and 5 and it is assumed selection will be made on the basis of availability, interest, relevance to core studies, ability to connect to other arts disciplinary areas or vocational relevance. Subjects in the Elective Applied Arts Studies are not offered each year and students will need to consult the School to ascertain subject offerings in a particular year.

General Education Requirement

Information for all Undergraduate Students

Objectives of the General Education Program

The following objectives were approved by the Council of the University in December 1994.

1. To provide a learning environment in which students acquire, develop, and deploy skills of rational thought and critical analysis
2. To enable students to evaluate arguments and information
3. To empower students to systematically challenge received traditions of knowledge, beliefs and values
4. To enable students to acquire skills and competencies, including written and spoken communication skills
5. To ensure that students examine the purposes and consequences of their education and experience at University, and to foster acceptance of professional and ethical action and the social responsibility of graduates
6. To foster among students the competence and the confidence to contribute creatively and responsibly to the development of their society
7. To provide structured opportunities for students from disparate disciplines to co-operatively interact within a learning situation
8. To provide opportunities for students to explore discipline and paradigm bases other than those of their professional or major disciplinary specialisation through non-specialist subjects offered in those other areas
9. To provide an environment in which students are able to experience the benefits of moving beyond the knowledge boundaries of a single discipline and explore cross- and interdisciplinary connections
10. To provide a learning environment and teaching methodology in which students can bring the approaches of a number of disciplines to bear on a complex problem or issue

General Education requirements

The basic General Education requirements are the same for students in all single degree courses. Over the course of a degree program students:

- satisfactorily complete a minimum of 30 credit points of study in General Education subjects or their equivalent;
- undertake an additional fifty-six (56) hours of study which ensures that students examine the purposes and consequences of their education and experience at university, and fosters acceptance of professional and ethical action and social responsibility. This fifty-six hours of study may be distributed throughout the course, or exist as a separate subject, depending on the course.

Because the objectives of General Education require students to explore discipline and paradigm bases other than those of their professional or major disciplinary specialisation, all students are excluded from counting subjects toward the fulfilment of the General Education requirement, which are similar in content or approach to subjects required in their course.

Faculty requirements

Each faculty has responsibility for deciding what subjects are not able to be counted towards the General Education requirement for their students. In most cases, this means that subjects offered by the faculty in which a student is enrolled, or subjects which are a required part of a course even though offered by another faculty, are not able to be counted toward the General Education requirement.

Faculty handbooks, brochures and booklets provide information about what subjects may and may not be taken to fulfil the General Education requirements for each course offered by that faculty.

This subject will provide an introduction to ways of looking, seeing, thinking and using materials to make paintings. The subject will involve both theoretical and practical exploration of visual elements to construct form-space relationships within a two-dimensional field. Note/s: lecture/seminar/workshop. COFA. Offered over 10 half day sessions in summer recess (10-21 February) and the winter recess (14-25 July).

This subject will cover in simple terms both the theoretical and practical aspects of producing a fine art print. The theoretical component will deal with the context in which artists produce prints; describing the contemporary world in which rapidly developing technology has provided the means of producing multiple, repeatable images very easily via the photocopier, fax machine and computer printer. The basic differences between a 'production', a commercial printed image and a 'fine art print' will be discussed, and the conventions of annotating and numbering a printed edition will be covered. The practical component will enable the student to become familiar with some of the fine art printing techniques, such as Etching, Relief, Lithography and Screen print through studying the work of a selection of Australian printmakers and techniques demonstrated. Students will have the opportunity to produce a print using one of the above mediums and to mount and document it appropriately.

Master of Art Administration (by Coursework) MArtAdm

The Course

The Master of Art Administration combines wide ranging aspects of the visual arts in relation to management, marketing and finance as well as curatorial practices, writing and documentation, legal and theoretical studies. The degree recognises the significant changes that are taking place in the cultural sphere and prepares students for future employment in areas both inside and outside the traditional gallery/museum context. Practical, analytical and theoretical skills are developed in a program that emphasises vocational training within a wider cultural and critical framework.

It is intended that students graduating from this course will be equipped with the skills necessary to function in managerial, administrative, curatorial, art writing and other professional capacities within the visual arts industry.

The course consists of lectures, seminars and hands-on activities, a 10,000 word research paper and an industry placement of no less than 180 hours. Each subject normally requires attendance at a 3 hour lecture plus related research and assignment work. The research paper draws on the experiences of the internship but is an independent, supervised project that involves a time commitment at least equivalent to other core subjects.

Subjects

Core Subjects

COFA8120

Management and Organisation: Systems, Services and Survival

Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject examines the management and administrative skills and knowledge required from individuals to take up positions as directors and managers of arts and related organisations. It covers aspects of management and organisational structures in existing institutions both large and small, public and commercial. It includes the establishment of new organisations and the planning and development of systems designed to ensure the delivery of services and the long term survival of arts organisations and institutions, their human and material resources and the ideas and ideals which drive them.

COFA8124

Cultural Property, Ethics and the Law

Staff Contact: Head, School of Art History and Theory
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject examines the ethical and legal implications of the interactions generated between artists, exhibiting spaces and the viewing/purchasing public in contemporary society. It enables the development of a broader critical perspective on the cultural, legal, political and moral contexts of gallery and museum management. Issues discussed include contracts, copyright, acquisitions and disposal of works, moral rights and censorship, conflict of interest, the responsibilities of trustees.

COFA8129

Writing for Different Cultures and Audiences

Staff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject is about the kinds of writing that those working in art institutions most commonly undertake: writing from the perspective of the institution. It recognises that writing may have many different functions and writers must learn to adapt their style, vocabulary and technique, according to who will read the product. Questions to be considered include the current debate on captions, writing for children and non-specialist publics, research techniques including oral history, press kits and media management, and different types of catalogues. The method of study is very much 'hands on'. It involves, among other things, the editing and layout of an edition of Artwrite, a magazine of student writing.

COFA8132

Exhibition Management and Curatorial Studies

Staff Contact: Nick Waterlow
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject examines the theoretical and practical aspects of exhibition management. It develops a knowledge of curatorial procedures with particular reference to the initiation, presentation, interpretation and planning of art works in exhibition settings. Specific attention is paid to the administrative skills necessary to mount exhibitions, the production of visual and written documentation and the methods of critical engagement with images and objects. Visits to exhibitions as well as participation in the planning and implementation of an exhibition form an essential part of this subject.

COFA8133

Research Paper

Staff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn
S1 or S2 CP15

This allows for the focussing of investigative, analytical and theoretical skills. Topics must relate to the broad area of the internship and are chosen in consultation with a supervisor who will guide and direct the project. The 10,000 word study, one copy of which is retained by the College, may include the use of film, video and audio tape or photographic documentation where relevant. While it may draw directly on experiences gained during the internship, the research paper must be treated as an independent project.

Elective Subjects

COFA8121

Conservation and Collections Management

Staff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject introduces the principles of conservation and illustrates its role as an integrated component of collections management. It examines the physical nature of works of art and the interactions with their environment. The range of responses of conservation to collections is discussed as well as conservation's relationship with an institution's custodial responsibilities and public programs. Conservators and registrars at selected Sydney institutions are visited in order to facilitate a comparative overview of conservation practice.

COFA8125

Exhibition and Gallery Design Development

Staff Contact: Nick Waterlow
S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject considers two areas of design development. These are the theoretical and practical aspects of exhibition design and display techniques and the specific design demands of a gallery space. The ways in which the objectives of an exhibition may be identified are discussed, and all aspects related to project initiation and completion examined. These include planning and design management, budget formulation and controls, production and installation management, spatial requirements and evaluation, light and lighting.

COFA8128The Development of Art Criticism in AustraliaStaff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn*

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject examines the history of art criticism and writing about art in an Australian context and considers how these practices reflect, diagnose and affect the nature of the visual arts. There is a constant evaluation of recent art criticism from a variety of sources and a questioning of what actually constitutes criticism. At the same time, the subject goes back to the start of writing about art in Australia and looks at the practice from the beginning of European settlement to recent times in an historical context.

COFA8130Art Galleries and Collections in AustraliaStaff Contact: Alan Krell*

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject balances the historical and theoretical aspects of collections (public, private and corporate) with the practical issues involved. How and why collections are formed; the aesthetic and political assumptions behind collecting policies; how well various collections serve their constituencies are some of the issues that are explored, together with aspects of conservation, storage, documentation and access as they relate to the practical aspects of collection management. Visits are made to various public institutions including state and regional galleries and, where possible, selected private and corporate collections.

COFA8137Festivals and BiennalesStaff Contact: Nick Waterlow*

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject covers the history, conception and implementation of arts festivals and recurrent national and international exhibitions. Particular attention is paid to events in Australia such as the Biennale of Sydney, the Australian Sculpture Triennial and the Adelaide Festival (including Artists' Week). Overseas events include the history of the Biennale commencing in Venice in 1895 to Sao Paulo and Paris, as well as major expositions such as the Indian Triennial, Documenta and the Carnegie International. The history of these complex programs is discussed, in particular, the administrative skills, conceptual insights and artistic resources essential to their successful realisation.

COFA8138Education and Public ProgramsStaff Contact: Nick Waterlow*

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject covers issues surrounding public programs and education in the context of art galleries, museums and related institutions. It addresses questions to do with the identification and definition of audiences, examines the needs of non specialist communities as well as educational institutions, and takes account of the practicalities of budgeting and planning. The development of programs using volunteer guides (and their training), floor talks, lectures, seminars and conferences, is presented as a subject for practical purposes as well as critical consideration. Also included is a consideration of exhibitions for purely educational purposes.

COFA8139Human Resources ManagementStaff Contact: Lindy Bolitho*

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject provides individuals working in an arts based organisation with competencies relevant to the inter-personal and inter-group skills demanded in the efficient and effective management of organisations. It aims to fulfil the needs of individuals interested in the principles of planning, organisation, communication and evaluation of personnel within an organisation and, as well, the needs of directors and supervisors who wish to develop expertise in essential personnel management aspects of their job within an appropriate theoretical framework.

COFA8140Marketing and PromotionStaff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn*

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject focuses on issues in marketing for those working in arts and related fields. Topics covered include methods of audience research and ways of undertaking group surveys and their implementation. How to define the unique qualities of a target institution and create a public image around this separateness are issues explored, together with detailed studies of promotional and fundraising strategies.

COFA8141History of Exhibitions of Australian ArtStaff Contact: Dr Joanna Mendelssohn*

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject introduces issues in Australian art by a detailed examination of those art exhibitions which have attempted to define either Australian art or crucial moments in Australian art. The subject examines both the curatorial rationale behind the exhibitions and the art which was perceived by different generations as significant. Major exhibitions, here and overseas, will be considered in the context of a broader cultural history.

COFA8142Arts and Cultural PolicyStaff Contact: Course Co-ordinator, School of Art History and Theory*

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject reviews the development of arts and cultural policy and policy implementation in Australia. Particular attention is paid to the role of the Australia Council and the development of national and regional infrastructure, and factors determining the level and allocation of public funding. Comparisons are drawn with other nations, particularly the United Kingdom, Canada and the United States of America.

COFA8143Visual and Museum Cultures of the Asia-Pacific RegionStaff Contact: Course Co-ordinator, School of Art History and Theory*

S1 or S2 HPW3 CP15

This subject introduces a comparative study of contemporary visual art and museum cultures in the Asia-Pacific region. As arts professionals – curators, administrators, writers, etc – develop relationships with colleagues through the region, an understanding not only of the visual arts but also of the museum sector is becoming essential. Case studies of international exhibitions, and related arts programs will be examined.

Internship

COFA8127

Students undertake a project based industry placement consisting of a minimum of 180 hours. This may involve more than one host institution. Industry placements enable students to gain practical, supervised experience of gallery management, curatorial practice, public programs, art writing and other work areas related to the course. The industry placement is ungraded but successful completion requires the submission of reports both by the host institution and the student. Students are also required to attend a report back session with lecturers involved in the program.

Industry placements have been hosted locally, interstate and overseas by the following, among others: the National Gallery of Australia, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York), Art Gallery of New South Wales, regional and commercial galleries in New South Wales, Sotheby's Australia Pty Ltd, Australian Centre for Photography, State Library of New South Wales, Visual Arts/Craft Board of the Australia Council, Powerhouse Museum, and the Ministry for the Arts New South Wales.

Applicants for admission to the course must hold an appropriate degree of Bachelor from The University of New South Wales or a qualification considered equivalent from another university or tertiary institution at a level acceptable to the Higher Degree Committee of the College of Fine Arts.

Applicants who do not meet the above formal admission requirements but who possess qualifications and/or experience relevant to the course may be considered for special admission.

Structure of the Course

The Master of Design has two main options. Students may elect sub-options within the strands indicated according to their focus..

1. The Studio Strand focuses on the integration of research studies with the studio disciplines of Graphics/Media or Environments (ie: Interiors, Exhibitions etc) or multi-disciplinary approaches.

2. The Studies Strand focuses on the integration of research studies with design management or design history/theory concerns.

Students may opt to complete the degree as full time (ie: one year) or as part-time (ie: two years). The typical patterns are indicated below.
